At the Court at Buckingham Palace,
July 1, 1861.

A CHAPTER of the Most Ancient and Most Noble Order of the Thistle, having been summoned for this day, the following Knights Brethren, in their Mantles and Collars, assembled in the Palace, viz.:

The Earl of Rosebery, the Earl of Mansfield, the Duke of Montrose, the Earl of Elgin, the Duke of Argyll, and the Marquess of Ailsa, attended by the undermentioned Officers, in their mantles, and wearing their chains and badges; viz.: Sir John Stewart Richardson, Baronet, Secretary of the Order, and Frederic-Peel Round, Esq., Gentleman Usher of the Green Rod.

At three o'clock the Knights Brethren were called over by the Secretary, when (Her Majesty and His Royal Highness the Prince Consort having passed into the Chapter Room), they proceeded, with the Officers of the Order, into the presence of the Sovereign.

The Queen being seated in Her Chair of State, and His Royal Highness the Prince Consort at the table on the right hand of Her Majesty, the Sovereign was pleased to command the other Knights Brethren to take their seats at the table, according to their seniority in the Order, the Officers of the Order standing at the bottom of the table.

The Sovereign was then pleased to signify Her Royal pleasure touching the election of a Knight into the Order; whereupon the Knights Brethren proceeded to the election, and the suffrages having been collected by the Secretary (commencing with the Junior Knight), were by him, kneeling, presented to The Sovereign, who was pleased to declare that the Right Honourable Thomas, Earl of Zetland, had been duly elected a Knight of the Most Ancient and Most Noble Order of the Thistle.

Then, by command of The Sovereign, the Earl of Zetland was received at the door of the Chapter-room by the Duke of Argyll and the Marquess of Ailsa, the two Junior Knights Brethren present, and conducted between them to Her Majesty, preceded by the Secretary (bearing the ensigns of the Order upon a velvet cushion), and by the Gentleman Usher of the Green Rod.

The Sword of State being thereupon delivered to the Sovereign, the Earl of Zetland kneeling near the Queen, was knighted therewith; after which his Lordship had the honour to kiss Her Majesty's hand; the Earl of Zetland rising, the Oath was administered to his Lordship by the Secretary.

The Earl of Zetland then, again kneeling, and the Secretary on his knee, presenting to Her Majesty the Riband and Jewel of the Order, the Queen, assisted by His Royal Highness the Prince Consort, the senior Knight, was graciously pleased to place the same over his Lordship's left shoulder.

His Lordship having again kissed the Sovereign's hand, and after receiving the congratulations of the Knights Brethren, retired.

The Chapter then proceeded to a second election; and, the suffrages having been collected as before, and presented to The Sovereign, Her Majesty was pleased to declare, that the Right Honourable Robert Montgomerie, Lord Belhaven and Stenton, had been duly elected a Knight of the Most Ancient and Most Noble Order of the Thistle, whereupon his Lordship was introduced and knighted, and, the oath having been administered to his Lordship, he was invested with the Riband and Jewel, in the same manner as the Earl of Zetland had been, and the like ceremonies having been observed, his Lordship withdrew.

The Chapter being ended, the Knights Brethren were, by command of Her Majesty, again called over by the Secretary, and, with the Officers of the Order, retired from the presence of The Sovereign with the usual reverences.

His Majesty the King of Hanover engages to Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, His Majesty the Emperor of Austria, King of Hungary and Bohemia, His Majesty the King of the Belgians, His Majesty the Emperor of Brazil, His Majesty the King of Denmark, Her Majesty the Queen of Spain, His Majesty the Emperor of the French, His Royal Highness the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, His Majesty the King of the Kingdom of Portugal and the Algarves, His Majesty the King of Prussia, His Majesty the Emperor of all the Russias, King of Poland, Grand Duke of Finland, His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway, and the Senates of the Free Hanseatic Cities of Lubeck, Bremen, and Hamburgh, who accept such engagement—

1. To abolish completely and for ever the duty hitherto levied upon the cargoes of vessels which, in ascending the Elbe, pass the mouth of the River Schwinge, which duty is generally known under the name of the Stade or Brunshausen toll.

2. Not to substitute for the duty, the suppression of which is stipulated by the preceding paragraph, any new tax, of whatever nature, with regard either to the hull or the cargo, upon vessels which shall ascend or descend the Elbe.

3. Not henceforth to subject, under any pretence whatever, vessels which shall ascend or descend the Elbe, to any measure of control relating to the discontinued duty.

It is, however, well understood that the above-mentioned arrangements shall be obligatory only with regard to the Powers which are Parties to the present Treaty, or may accede thereto; His Majesty the King of Hanover expressly reserving to himself the right to regulate, by special arrangements, not involving visit or detention, the treatment in regard to duties and customs, of vessels belonging to Powers which have not or shall not become parties to this Treaty.

ARTICLE II.

His Majesty the King of Hanover engages, moreover, to the above-mentioned High Contracting Parties:—

1. To take care, as hitherto, and according to his actual obligations, of the preservation of the works which are necessary to the free navigation of the Elbe.

2. Not to introduce, by way of compensation for the expenses resulting from the execution of such engagement, any charge whatever in the stead and place of the Stade or Brunshausen duty.

ARTICLE III.

The engagements contained in the two preceding Articles shall come into operation from and after the 1st of July, 1861.

ARTICLE IV.

the Emperor of Brazil, His Majesty the King of Denmark, Her Majesty the Queen of Spain, His Majesty the Emperor of the French, His Royal Highness the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, His Majesty the King of the Kingdoms of Portugal and the Algarves, His Majesty the King of Prussia, His Majesty the Emperor of all the Russias, King of Poland, Grand Duke of Finland, His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway, and the Senates of the Free Hanseatic Cities of Lubeck, Bremen, and Hamburgh, engage, on their part, to pay to His Majesty the King of Hanover, who accepts the same, a total sum of 2,857,338 $\frac{2}{3}$ German thalers, to be thus assessed :

ARTICLE V.

With regard to the manner, the place, and the time of payment of the different quotas, it is agreed that payment shall be made in German thalers, at Hanover or at Hamburg, at the option of the paying Government, and within the term of three months from the 1st of July, 1861. Separate arrangements may, nevertheless, be made with a view to extend the term above mentioned, or to provide for payment by annuities.

The payment of interest, at the rate of four per cent. upon the capital, shall be obligatory from the 1st of October, 1861, for payments in one sum; and from the 1st of July, 1861, for payments in instalments.

ARTICLE VI.

The execution of the reciprocal engagements contained in the present Treaty is expressly declared to be subject to the fulfilment of the formalities and rules prescribed by the constitutional laws of those of the High Contracting Parties for whom such a sanction is needful, and who engage to take measures for obtaining the same with the least possible delay.

ARTICLE VII.

The present Treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Hanover before the 1st of July, 1861, or as soon as possible after that date.

*Protocol of a Conference held at Hanover,
June 22, 1861.*

(Translation.)

IN case it should not be possible for the execution of the engagements contained in Articles VI and VII of the Treaty of this date to take place before the 1st of July, 1861, it is understood that the Hanoverian Government shall retain the right to maintain provisionally after that date, by taking security, the duty which it has engaged to abolish; but as soon as any of the Contracting Powers shall have fulfilled the said engagements, the Hanoverian Government shall, on its part, terminate the provisional measure of taking security, and shall direct the discharge of such securities with regard to goods conveyed in the vessels of such Power. The Hanoverian Government may, nevertheless, until all the Contracting Parties shall have definitively accomplished the engagements contained in Articles VI and VII, require from exempted vessels the verification of their nationality, without, however, thereby occasioning to such vessels any delay or detention.

Extracts from Protocol (No. 3) of a Conference held at Hanover, June 19, 1861.

(Translation.)

THE Conference proceeds to the examination of the draft of Protocol intended to regulate the temporary state of things until the definitive accomplishment by all the Contracting Powers of the engagements contained in Articles VI and VII of the Treaty.

The Protocol is read by the Count de Platen.

The Delegate of Hanover deems it unnecessary to say anything in support of a draft, which is in all points conformable to the Protocol signed on occasion of the abolition of the Sound dues.

The Delegate of the Netherlands remarks that it will be necessary to ascertain the manner in which the Government of Hanover proposes to execute the measure of taking security contemplated by the draft. Referring to the circular issued by the Direction of the Customs of the Sound on the 29th of March, 1857, which, though not included in the negotiations properly so called, did not the less bear a certain international character, he expresses the desire that Hanover would adopt an administrative arrangement analogous to that measure of the Danish Government. The Government of the Netherlands can only admit the Protocol subject to such a reservation.

The Count de Platen-Hallermund replies that the Government of Hanover, with an earnest wish to accommodate as much as possible all interests concerned, is ready to adopt an expedient which would consist in leaving to the parties the option of making a deposit in cash, or of giving security through a broker residing in the port of destination, whose solvency is known to the toll office, and who, instead of the papers and documents prescribed in § 8 b. of the Regulation of the 13th of April, 1844 (relative to the Stade or Brunshausen toll) would have only to give a simple note of hand ("cédule"), retaining his remedy against the proper person with regard to the amounts specified therein.

The Conference decides unanimously to accept the proposition of the Delegate of Hanover, which shall be inserted in the procès-verbal of the sitting.

The Protocol is put to the vote, and unanimously adopted, after the date of the 1st of July had been inserted therein.

The Plenipotentiary of Great Britain then spoke in the following terms :—

“The Conference has happily decided upon the Draft of Treaty by which the Stade toll will be abolished, and Hanover takes the engagements contained in Article II thereof. I think that as there are two other riverain States represented in the Conference, it would be well to ascertain in what manner their Governments intend to act in future relative to the maintenance of the free navigation of the river.

“I therefore take the liberty of asking each of those Plenipotentiaries whether it is in their power to give explanations on this subject.”

“The Plenipotentiary of His Majesty the King of Denmark declares that his Government engages to maintain in future, as in the past, so far as it is concerned, the works serving to maintain the navigability of the Elbe, without imposing, by way of compensation, any new duty whatever, either upon the hull of vessels which shall ascend or descend that river, or upon their cargoes.”

The Plenipotentiary of Hamburgh, responding on his side to the invitation of the Plenipotentiary of Great Britain, says that he might, perhaps, contest the competency of the Conference to deal with the question thus raised. He will, however, abstain from doing so. In consequence, he has the honour to make, in the name of the Senate, the following Declaration :—

“The Plenipotentiary of the Free City of Hamburgh declares that the abolition of the Stade toll will never be for that city a motive for altering the actual state of things relative to the maintenance at its expense of the navigability of the Elbe from Hamburgh to the sea, which state of things will subsist in all respects without alteration."

At the request of the Plenipotentiary of the Netherlands, the Conference decides that the Declarations which have been read shall be textually inserted in the Protocol of the sitting, as well as the explanations of the Plenipotentiary of Great Britain which gave rise to them.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
July 2, 1861.*

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of the following Instructions, issued by the Hanoverian Government to the Office of the Stade Toll, at Hamburgh, for the purpose of carrying out the stipulations of the Treaty and Protocol of the 22nd ultimo, for the abolition of the Stade Toll.

Order.

A.

Ships of all States which may or may not have acceded to the Treaty are, from the 1st of July of this year, released from stopping or anchoring before the Schwinge for the purpose of making declaration of toll.

B.

Ships of the States which took part in the Redemption Treaty, and have since fulfilled the reserved condition made in Articles 6 and 7 of the Treaty (i.e., the obtaining the necessary approval of the Legislative Bodies, and the formal ratification), are to be treated in accordance with the provisions of the following sections, 1—5 :—

Up to this time the reserved condition has been fulfilled by Belgium and Brazil.

So soon as this shall be done by other States also, a further order thereupon shall be issued.

§ 1. Cargoes of those ships, supposing their nationality to be shown in accordance with the direction (§ 3), will be released from payment of the Stade (Brunshausen) Toll, as also from payment of any other duties for the action of the guardship at Brunshausen, from the 1st of July of this year, in case and so far as the Treaty with the individual State to which the ship belongs be brought to complete settlement by fulfilment of the above reserved condition by the 1st July of this year ; and if not, then from the day on which this complete formal settlement is made known to the Royal Government.

§ 2. In regard to the cargoes of the ships mentioned in the preceding section, the production of cargo documents from and after the day of release will no longer be required.

§ 3. On the other hand, masters of the ships mentioned in § 1, in order to acquire exemption from toll, are further bound to prove their nationality in passing the toll line ; and that not merely by hoisting their flag, but by delivering in a paper whether sea pass or commission, or ship's register, or certificate of build (Bielbrief) &c., &c., notifying the nationality of the ship.

If the nationality of the ship be not sufficiently shown in passing the toll line, the proof of nationality must be completed in the harbour of the place to which she is bound.

For the rest, the control in this case will not be stringently maintained, except in the case of those vessels whose nationality is not already known otherwise to the Elbe Toll officials at Brunshausen.

§ 4. As a rule, upon proof of nationality shown, an official certificate (Annex 1), will be given to the Master by the officer of the Elbe Toll Guardship, at Brunshausen.

This certificate is to be delivered in at the office of the Elbe Toll Guardship, on the return voyage, instead of the return certificate (Retourschein).

§ 5. The obligation to prove nationality ceases so soon as the Treaty for redeeming the Stade (Brunshausen) Toll shall be brought to complete settlement by all the contracting States, through fulfilment of the reserved condition mentioned above.

C.

In regard to ships of those States which have concluded the Treaty of Redemption, but have not yet brought the same to complete settlement, namely at present, Bremen, Denmark, France, Great Britain, Hamburgh, Hanover, Lubeck, Mecklenburgh, Netherlands, Norway, Austria, Portugal, Prussia, Russia, Spain, and Sweden, the following provisions will be observed until a complete settlement be obtained on their part, when their ships will be treated in accordance with B, Sections 1—5.

§ 6. The amount of duty upon goods passing the toll line in the ships here treated of, will, instead of being definitively paid, be either (as may be preferred by those bound to pay the duties)

A. Deposited at one of the toll places, Brunshausen, Hamburgh, or Harburg, or,

B. Secured by the bond of a ship's broker, whose ability to pay is known at the respective toll place.

§ 7. For the purpose of ascertaining the amount of duties to be deposited or secured, as in § 6, the ship and cargo papers are to be delivered in at the office of the Elbe Toll Guardship, in Brunshausen, by ships passing the toll line.

The return certificate (Retourschein) will not be made out until the provisions of § 6 be complied with.

§ 8. So soon as the Treaty for the redemption of the Brunshausen Toll with one of the States which have acceded thereto shall be brought to complete settlement, any sum paid for duties deposited as by § 6 upon goods passing the toll-line in ships of this State shall be repaid to the depositor in full amounts, or to any person empowered by him, on receiving back the Certificate of Deposit receipted (Annex 2); and in like manner any security bonds of brokers (see 6 in § 6) of Annex 3, for the amount of duties upon such goods as have passed the toll-line, in ships of this State, shall be declared cancelled, and given back.

But if one or other of the States which have acceded to the Treaty by signing the same should declare its inability to ratify the Treaty, then the amount of tolls deposited for goods passing the toll-line in ships of this State shall go over to the Royal Treasury, and the sums for which security has been given shall be called in.

§ 9. A disbursement of 3 per cent. from the Royal Treasury shall be granted to the brokers for those amounts of toll which they may deposit or become security for.

The toll amount Extracts will, in like manner, be delivered to the same for the amounts of toll deposited or secured, as if they had definitively paid in the amounts.

It is left to them how they may secure their claims against the parties originally bound to pay the duties.

D.

The ships of those States which have not yet concluded the Treaty of the 22nd June of this year, and the goods laden upon ships of those States remain, in the meantime, subject to the provision of the Regulation of the 13th April, 1844, and accordingly have to pay the toll definitively ; but those ships are released from stopping or anchoring before the Schwinge for declaration of duties.

War-Office, 17th July, 1861.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the decoration of the Victoria Cross on the undermentioned Non-commissioned Officer, whose claim to the same has been submitted for Her Majesty's approval, in consideration of an Act of Bravery which he has performed in New Zealand, as recorded against his name; viz.:

40th Regiment.

Colour-Serjeant John Lucas.—On the 18th of March, 1861, Colour-Serjeant Lucas acted as Serjeant of a party of the 40th Regiment, employed as skirmishers to the right of No. 7, Redoubt, and close to the Huirangi Bush, facing the left of the positions occupied by the natives. At about 4 o'clock P.M., a very heavy and well-directed fire was suddenly opened upon them from the Bush, and the high ground on the left. Three men being wounded simultaneously, two of them mortally, assistance was called for in order to have them carried to the rear: a file was immediately sent, but had scarcely arrived, when one of them fell, and Lieutenant Rees was wounded at the same time. Colour-Serjeant Lucas, under a very heavy fire from the rebels, who were not more than thirty yards distant, immediately ran up to the assistance of this Officer, and sent one man with him to the rear. He then took charge of the arms belonging to the killed and wounded men, and maintained his position until the arrival of supports under Lieutenants Gibson and Whelan. Date of Act of Bravery, 18th March, 1861.

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of JULY 26, 1861.

War Office, 26th July, 1861.

A DESPATCH, of which the following is an Extract, has been received, with its Enclosures, from Major-General Pratt, K.C.B. :

Head Quarters, Camp, Waitara,

SIR, April 2, 1861.

REFERRING to my despatch of the 11th and 12th ultimo, I have the honour to enclose, for the information of His Royal Highness the General Commanding-in-Chief, documents as per annexed list, by which it will be seen that the truce with Wiremu Tamehana up to the 15th March led to no result, beyond the transmission of letters from Tamehana to the Governor, the Bishop of New Zealand and to Sir W. Martin, with a request that they should be forwarded by me, and that I acquainted him that if he did not agree to the terms I had offered to him, by the afternoon of the 14th March, I should recommence hostilities ; accordingly, the long expected Armstrong guns and mortars having in the interim reached me, on the morning of the 15th March, I had them placed in position and commenced the advance and attack more vigorously than ever. The sap was pushed forward and the guns and mortars made excellent play on the various positions.

During the night of the 16th March, the enemy attempted to take away the sap-roller but were stopped, with loss, by the explosion of a shell which had been purposely placed in it.

On the morning of the 18th, the Native Secretary Mr. McLean duly accredited by the Governor, and accompanied by several influential chiefs, arrived in my camp, and a letter to Tamehana was sent by Mr. McLean to the effect that if a white flag was hoisted, operations would be suspended and that at a conference the Governor's reply to his letter would be communicated to him. During the whole day, however, the works were carried on, and about 5 p.m. a very brisk fire was opened on the skirmishers on the right flank, promptly replied to by us, in which the enemy owns to have met with severe loss, while we had three men killed, and two officers and four men wounded.

At daylight on the 19th March, a white flag was hoisted and operations were suspended, the enemy were evidently thoroughly sickened of the war. Mr. McLean had an interview with the insurgent chiefs, and on his return he informed me that the Waikato, the men from Wanganui, and the Ngatiruanuis, would return to their respective homes, and William King to Mataitawa to await terms of peace ; and next morning there was not an insurgent in my front, all having gone.

When about to send a few men to occupy the position, Mr. McLean told me, that in native opinion, they having retired from my front was submission, and that to occupy the position would now be considered somewhat unfair and would retard negotiations. I stipulated, however, that whilst we should keep our advanced positions, the pahs and positions before me should be vacated and that no one should remain in or near them during the cessation of hostilities and pending the arrival of the Governor.

His Excellency arrived on the 27th March, and negotiations are now going on which I trust will terminate in an honourable and lasting peace.

On the 30th, when being sworn in as a Member of the Executive Council of the Colony, the English mail arrived, and Lieutenant-General Cameron, C.B., reached my camp with orders to assume the command of the forces in New Zealand, which was to be separated from the Australian colonies, while I was directed to return to my command in Melbourne.

I enclose a list of casualties since the 11th March, until the cessation of hostilities, amongst which will be found the name of Lieutenant Macnaghten, Royal Artillery, who fell at the head of the advanced demi-parallel whilst serving a Coehorn mortar. The gallantry and coolness of this young officer during the whole of this war had rendered him a general favourite, and his untimely fate has been deeply felt in the force from the general to the private.

I have now to bring to the notice of His Royal Highness the services of Commodore Seymour and the Naval Brigade. The cordial co-operation which I have experienced from this gallant officer has been uninterrupted during the whole period in which we have served together.

Lieutenant Battiscombe, of Her Majesty's ship Pelorus, has rendered valuable assistance, not only with the Naval Brigade, but also with the Royal Engineer Department, to which he was attached; and Midshipmen Hotham and Wadlow had opportunity of showing their gallantry and good service whilst working the heavy guns.

The services of the Royal Marine Artillery and Royal Marines, under Lieutenant Morris, R.M.A., were, as always, most valuable.

Commander Norman, Her Majesty's colonial steam-sloop Victoria, has, with his ship, proved of incalculable value during this service; and his chief officer, Mr. Woods, late R.N., did good service while attached to the Naval Brigade on shore.

It is my duty to bring to notice the very valuable services of Colonel Mould, commanding Royal Engineers, assisted by Captain Mould and Lieutenant Warburton, R.E. The document from Colonel Mould, which accompanies this despatch, will show how gigantic were the works designed and superintended by him, and the arduous labours of the troops who constructed them for so long a period under daily fire.

The Royal Artillery, under Captain Strover, have, as they always do, rendered most valuable service during the campaign. Latterly the Armstrong Battery, under Captain Mercer and Lieutenant Pickard, showed the power and precision of that arm, though attack on mountains and forest, and an unseen foe, is not the position which shows this powerful weapon to its full advantage. A valuable report on this arm, by Captain Mercer, accompanies this.

I also beg to bring prominently before His Royal Highness the services of the following officers commanding corps and detachments, many of whom have been named before in various actions ; and they have one and all done a duty, sometimes very severe, with cheerfulness and alacrity ; namely :

1st Battalion, 12th Regiment :

Major Hutchins.

Captain Miller (wounded).

2nd Battalion, 14th Regiment :

Major Douglas.

40th Regiment :

Lieutenant-Colonel Leslie.

Major T. L. R. Nelson, who commanded a detached force at the Waitara for a considerable period.

Captain Bowdler.

Captain Messenger.

Captain Richards. This last officer was wounded.

57th Regiment :

Major Logan.

65th Regiment :

Colonel Wyatt.

Captain Turner, who was wounded.

Lieutenant Urquhart.

Lieutenant Toker.

Taranaki Militia :

Major Herbert.

Captain Stapp.

Captain de Vaux.

Lieutenant A. King, my Militia Aide-de-Camp.

Staff :

Colonel Sillery, D.Q.M.G. (wounded).

Lieutenant-Colonel Carey, D.A.G.

Captain Paul, 65th Regiment, Major of Brigade ; and Lieutenant B. Forster, R.A. and A.D.C.

Deputy - Inspector - General J. Mouat, C.B., V.C., whose services were at all times most valuable and always available in all positions ; and he has brought to my notice—

Surgeon T. E. White, 65th Regiment, and Assistant-Surgeon B. Styles, 40th Regiment.

Deputy-Commissary-General Jones, and J. P. Du Moulin, Esq., who has acted as Deputy-Assistant-Commissary-General, and has done duty with the troops in the field during the whole period of the service.

D. Hay, Esq., Native Commissioner, who has been attached to the forces whilst in the field, has also rendered efficient and essential service in his department.

There is one staff-officer, however (Lieutenant-Colonel Carey, D.A.G.), who I venture to bring to His Royal Highness's notice as being worthy of some special mark of Her Majesty's approbation. His gallantry and unremitting exertions during the whole of the war have been singularly conspicuous, and have been remarked, not only by myself, but by every member of this force.

And with regard to the soldiery of all arms, it is my bounden duty to point out their arduous and unceasing labour in erecting strong redoubts and pushing forward the sap, always under heavy fire, and driving the enemy from his lines of rifle-pits and strong positions with a loss to us indescribably small, thus showing this wily, brave, and skilful foe that all was unavailing against scientific works carried on by gallant men.

I have, &c.,

T. S. PRATT, Major-General,
Commanding in the Australian Colonies.

Royal Engineer Office, Taranaki, March 30, 1861.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to submit, for the information of the Major-General Commanding, the following Report, accompanied by a sketch, of the Engineer operations carried on for the attack of the pah on Matarikoriko, the entrenched position at and about Huirangi, and the Te Arei Pah.

The Major-General having resolved on the reduction of the pah on the strong and commanding position of Matarikoriko, and to entrench the troops in a suitable position to carry on that as well as other subsequent operations, a redoubt, No. 1, having a perimeter (interior) of 266 yards, and an area of 2,560 square yards, capable of accommodating 450 men, with four guns, was traced out on the morning of the 29th December last, on the site of the old Kairau Pah, about 1,100 yards distant from Matarikoriko, and commenced under cover of a line of skirmishers, and was carried on without molestation for upwards of two hours, with a working party of 100 men, superintended by a detail of Royal Engineers. About 9 A.M. a sharp fire of musketry was opened by the enemy from lines of rifle pits, previously unseen, situated on the left and left front of the redoubt, some only 140 yards distant on the edge of a very steep wooded and swampy gully. Nevertheless the work was continued without interruption, though there was but little intermission in the enemy's fire, good cover was obtained by 6 P.M., and 480 men occupied it during the night. On the 30th December platforms were laid on the left face of the redoubt, and two 8-inch guns mounted to breach the pah, and the parapets were heightened in parts so that the interior of the redoubt might be more thoroughly defiladed. On the 31st December, it having been ascertained that the Matarikoriko Pah had been evacuated by the enemy, it was taken possession of, 100 men, with one 24-pounder howitzer, and a detail of Royal Engineers, encamped inside, and the construction of a stockade to accommodate 60 men, was immediately commenced within the pah, and carried on day by day briskly to completion.

It being known that the enemy had strong entrenched lines at Huirangi, in difficult positions on the edges of gullies, with bush and scrub in their rear, the Major-General approved of a plan to establish redoubts, one in advance of another, and then to form approaches towards the position.

In accordance with this arrangement a redoubt, No. 2, 26 yards square, was established on the 14th January, about 600 yards in front of No. 1, and occupied the same night by 120 men and one 24-pounder howitzer, mounted en barbette.

On the 18th January redoubt No. 3, 30 yards square interiorly, was established about 400 yards in front of No. 2, and occupied that night by 100 men, with one howitzer. The fire from the enemy's position was in the early part of the day very brisk, and at intervals heavy volleys were fired; but the fire was materially kept down by that of the Artillery and skirmishers, so that the casualties were small,—only two in number.

On the 19th January and the two following days additions were made as wings to the redoubt, so as to increase the accommodation and to afford flanking defence, and an 8-inch gun was mounted in the right wing. The enlarged redoubt had an area of 1,900 square yards, and accommodated about 450 men in tents.

On the 22nd January a double sap, directed towards the centre of the enemy's position, was commenced and carried on, without intermission, day by day, until the 2nd February, when it reached their rifle pits. The daring attack of the enemy on the left wing of No. 3 redoubt, on the morning of the 23rd January, not being connected with the Engineer operations, is only thus alluded to. The sap, except for the first 120 yards, when it was only 12 feet in width, was fifteen feet wide in the clear of the gabions, and was substantially traversed at intervals of from 35 to 40 feet. The whole distance sapped was 768 yards, thus averaging 64 yards a day, and was executed without a single casualty, notwithstanding frequent daily volleys of musketry and dropping fire from various parts of the enemy's position, all concentrated on the head of the sap. During its progress, redoubt, No. 4, 13 yards square interiorly, to hold a guard of 50 men, was established on the 27th

January on the right, and on the 29th January redoubt No. 5, 24 yards square, was constructed on the left, about 250 yards from the rifle pits, for a garrison of 100 men. From the date of the formation of this last redoubt, the enemy had not fired upon the working parties, having evacuated their whole line, which was about 1500 yards in length from extreme right to left, and had retired down the gullies into the bush, and broken country in their rear. Thus the first objective point aimed at by the Major-General was satisfactorily attained.

Redoubt No. 6, was commenced on the line of the enemy's position, near the centre thereof, on the 2nd February, completed on the 3rd, and occupied the same date, with 450 men, with two 24-pounder howitzers, and an 8-inch gun was mounted on the 4th February, in the right half bastion of the redoubt. There being a bush, with dense undergrowth close to the left front of the redoubt, which might give cover to the enemy to advance, and attempt a surprise, it was resolved to destroy it, and working parties were employed in cutting it down on the 3rd February, and several following days.

From No. 6 Redoubt, the strong position of Puke-rangiora, situated upon the brink of a steep cliff, about 300 feet high, falling to the Waitara River, backed by a thick bush and occupied in part by Te Arei Pah, was observed through an avenue in the bush, and presumed to be at a distance of about 2,000 yards. After a careful reconnaissance, the Major-General determined to attack it in a mode similar to that proposed for the reduction of the Matarikoriko Pah, and carried out in the capture of the Huirangi position; accordingly on the 10th February, a force moved by two roads towards the position, and when within 850 yards of Te Arei, the enemy opened a well sustained fire from the pah, and from unseen lines of rifle pits of considerable extent, right and left and in advance thereof. A Redoubt, No. 7, having a perimeter of 240 yards, and an area of 1,650 superficial yards, was immediately traced out, carried on under a very heavy fire to completion, and occupied that night by 400 men.

As the enemy's position commanded the redoubt, the 11th February was occupied in raising portions of the parapets, and surmounting them with gabions, with sand-bag loop-holes at intervals between, and the redoubt was enlarged to give greater accommodation, on the 14th and 15th February.

A single sap, defiladed in directions from the enemy's position, but with traverses at intervals, to secure it from an oblique plunging fire, was commenced on the 16th February, and was carried on with occasional interruptions from the weather, and under a heavy fire from the enemy at uncertain periods, during each day, until the 24th February, when it became necessary to change its direction, and to resort to the double sap. The progress during the above period was 432 yards. On the 25th and 26th the double sap was proceeded with to the extent of 65 yards, and a short demi-parallel to the left was, during the same time, executed to afford cover for men to protect its further progress. During the night of the 26th the enemy had crept quietly to the sap, had destroyed the whole of the double sap, more or less injured about 130 yards of the single sap, and the whole of the demi-parallel, moving away into the pah 3 heavy sap rollers and 40 or 50 gabions, and before retiring burning some of the latter in the sap, which was the first intimation that the enemy had given of their secret movement. The 27th and 28th February, and part of the 1st March, was occupied in making good the damage done to the sap, and in constructing a Redoubt (No. 8) 16 yards square, to contain a guard of 80 men. In the afternoon of the 1st March the sap was recommenced in front of No. 8 Redoubt, and continued until the afternoon of the 3rd, when in consequence of a depression in the ground, it became so exposed to a plunging fire from the pah, that it became necessary to suspend it. On this day the only sapper who had been hit during the progress of the sap, was severely wounded in the back. To keep down the fire of the enemy a demi-parallel, to afford cover for marksmen and for a howitzer and a Cohorn mortar, was commenced on the last-mentioned date, on the left of the sap, and 50 yards in front of No. 8 Redoubt, and completed on the 4th, on the morning of which day the sap was proceeded with, and continued with the intermission of one-half of the 6th, and the whole of the 7th and 8th, until the evening of the 11th, though exposed daily to a heavy fire from the enemy, especially on the afternoon of the 5th, when they opened from their whole line, commencing on their extreme left in a bush to the right rear of No. 7 Redoubt, doubtless to draw attention from the sap, into which a sharp fire was subsequently poured from a scrub on the edge of a precipice, about 25 yards to the left of the head of the sap.

Hostilities which had been suspended on the 12th, 13th, and 14th March, were recommenced on the morning of the 15th, and the sap being then in close proximity to a line of rifle pits on the edge of the precipice above alluded to, a demi-parallel was commenced by the sap on the left of the main approach, and continued on that and the two following days, when it attained the edge of the precipice at one of the enemy's rifle pits, several of which immediately in front, as far as a bend in the line of the precipice, were thus exposed to view, and were necessarily abandoned by the enemy. At the same time on the 15th and 16th, No. 7 Redoubt was further enlarged to contain a half battery of Armstrong guns and the Artillery men attached; platforms for two 10-inch mortars were laid on the right of the redoubt, and a parapet to cover them, two 8-inch mortars, and one Armstrong gun, thrown up. On the 18th March, the sap was proceeded with and 27 yards executed, making a total length of 534 yards of single sap, and 412 yards of double sap, executed in 24 working days of 12 hours each, and bringing the approach to within about 90 yards of Te Arei Pah, when hostilities were again suspended with the view to the commencement of negotiations for peace.

Having thus detailed the operations, I would beg to submit that an attack conducted as described was the only one which under the circumstances was likely to be effectual in reducing the enemy to submission. Looking to the difficult nature of the country, the admirable positions taken up by the enemy, their peculiar mode of warfare, their character and disposition, attacks by "vive force" on their positions would not have had any moral effect on them, whilst on the other hand they would probably be elated and their courage raised by the mischief they had done. The enemy themselves unseen in their rifle pits would have an attacking force in full view during their advance, would by a dropping fire have harassed the columns in their approach, and when the troops were sufficiently close would have poured in a deadly volley and slunk with little loss into the bush, scrub, and impracticable swamps and gullies in their rear, leaving nothing but empty rifle pits as a barren conquest gained at considerable loss, and giving the savage enemy, what would be in their eyes a victory, increasing their audacity, and placing a peaceable solution at a greater distance. Position after position might be attacked and taken in this way until the enemy retired into their fastnesses, where it would be destruction to follow them, and from which they would emerge on the retirement of their assailants. The Maoris having their scouts constantly on the watch for every movement of their enemy, would, in anticipation of an attack, according to their customs, inflame their passions and excite their courage to make a determined resistance on the advance of the columns, but when driven out of their position, and having retired to their next line or to their bush and fastnesses, the excitement for the time subsides until they again arouse it to resist farther assaults. But this excitement they cannot sustain, and when a patient though determined advance is made day by day and they are incessantly harassed, they lose heart in proportion as they lose ground and men, their casualties becoming infinitely greater, whilst those of the attacking party are in proportion diminished as they are under cover, they become wearied and depressed, are confounded by a mode of attack so novel and so pertinaciously persisted in, and desirous of peace and rest. I would respectfully submit that the mode of procedure described, adopted by the Major-General, has been the cause of the present cessation of hostilities, and the evident desire for peace evinced by the Waikato Natives, the real principals in the war, as shewn by their rapid retirement from the recent scene of operations.

The sketch does not, and could not, give a precise idea of the difficult nature of the ground and the strength of the positions, especially the last, so admirably selected and occupied by the natives, nor can verbal description give a knowledge of the nature of the defences constructed by them. Their sites are at the best but barely indicated by a narrow line of newly-moved earth carefully spread, not exceeding six inches above the general surface of the ground, whilst for the most part they as well as the defenders are invisible, a head occasionally only being raised above the level of the ground to reconnoitre, though the line may be thickly occupied ; in the recent case it is presumed by a force at first amounting to nearly 1,200 men.

I would, in conclusion, beg to bring to your notice the officers of Royal Engineers under my command. Captain Mould, as senior, was the chief executive officer, and I believe I may without partiality declare that to his courage, energy, perseverance, and skill, added to his personal example, even of affording manual labour at the head of the sap, much of the success of the operation, and comparative absence of loss, was owing. Lieut. Warburton afforded me every assistance, and had especial charge of one of the Brigades of Engineers and the accompanying working parties, which he also incited by his example. In consequence of the deficiency of Officers of Royal Engineers the Major-General was pleased, upon my application and with the concurrence of Commodore Seymour, to place Lieut. Battiscombe, R.N., at my disposal as Assistant-Engineer, and that officer gave most valuable and efficient aid, not only in the occasional superintendence of the working parties in the trenches and at the construction of the redoubts, but in superintending the preparation of "materiel" at the Waitara

Camp and overlooking other works both of defence and civil buildings.

Colour-Serjeants Porter and Morant, each in their turn in charge of brigades and working parties, were most zealous and effective.

Considering how closely the late Lieut. Macnaghten, Royal Artillery, was connected with the Engineer operations, the advance of which was materially aided by his constant presence at and near the head of the sap effectively working a howitzer and Coehorn mortar, I beg to be permitted to pay a tribute to his memory as a cool, courageous, zealous, and highly-talented officer, and withal most unpretending, one who was warmly regarded and respected by his men, and admired and beloved by the officers of all arms of the service who had the advantage of his acquaintance, and by whom his loss is deeply deplored.

I have, &c.,

THOS. R. MOULD, Colonel,
Commanding Royal Engineers.

The Deputy Adjutant-General,
&c. &c.

Artillery, New Zealand.*

*Camp, No. 7 Redoubt,
March 30, 1861.*

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to report, for your information, the operations of the Royal Artillery under my command, from the 13th March to the 19th March, 1861. The half battery of Armstrong guns arrived at the Waitara, from Auckland, at 9 a.m. on the 13th March. We commenced disembarking in surf-boats, and by the same afternoon they were ready for service. The guns were taken out of their cases, cleaned and mounted, the ammunition, &c., examined, and the whole was found to be complete and in perfect order. The next day, the 14th, according to your directions I rode with Mr. Parris to select a favourable position for shelling "Mataitawa," the stronghold of Wiremu Kingi; but the distance of the nearest spot from which it could be seen, over the tops of the trees, was beyond the range of the 12-pounder Armstrong gun. Whilst away on this duty Lieutenant Pichard, with Sergeant-Major R. Hayes, had the men drilled and exercised in laying the guns, so as to be satisfied that they had not forgotten what they had learnt in England. The artificers at the same time were busily employed in making poles, &c., for bullock draught. Three poles were completed during the day, thus enabling the guns to start for the front at 6 a.m. the next morning, Friday 15th March. When the half battery arrived at No. 7 Redoubt the white flag was flying on the pah, but about the middle of the day it was hauled down, and the red war flag was hoisted instead, this was immediately followed by volleys from the natives. I was speaking with the late Lieutenant Macnaghten, R. A., at the time in the advance parallel, but returned to No. 7 Redoubt when the Armstrong guns, and 8-inch and 10-inch mortars were opened on the rifle pits of the enemy's position, at distances varying from 820 to 900 yards. The whole position from left to extreme right forms a curve about a mile in extent, and is naturally a strong one, from being situated on the edge of the forest, as well as from the nature of the ground: it consists of the "Te Arei" Pah which is a mass of rifle pits, with a dense bush in the rear for escape; on the right of the pah is a precipice overhanging the River Waitara, and on the left of the pah extends a range of hills commanding the approach to it, having a deep gulley and bush in front of them, and the forest in their rear. The slopes of these hills as well as their steep declivities are full of ingeniously constructed rifle pits ; many of these pits are concealed by a stunted growth of bush, so that the presence of our all but invisible enemy is often only known by the puffs of smoke from the rifles or guns, or occasionally a few heads appear above the crest of their line of pits for a moment or so, and then as suddenly disappear ; they lie concealed for hours, and now and then by single shots, and sometimes by volleys, they endeavour to do all the mischief they can. I have been particular in describing the position and mode of warfare of these natives, as it appeared to me at the time in order the more fully to explain the method I adopted to use the Armstrong gun with the best effect against them. After a trial shell on each of their positions, and the range having been accurately obtained, the guns were laid just below the crest of the line of their rifle pits, so that the shells when discharged should penetrate some three or four feet of earth, and fixed with the concussion fuse only, should burst inside their pits, when they retired, after delivering their fire. The guns were loaded and laid, the gunners, with lanyard in hand, waited for the word from the officer who was watching until some heads appeared above in that direction, or a puff of smoke revealed their presence, when the gun was instantly fired, and the shell entering just below the crest of the pits burst inside. The natives were in the habit of firing volleys in the morning and evening, whilst our working parties were going to or returning from the head of the sap, on these occasions the Armstrong guns were laid upon the lines of the pits, the shells fixed with time and concussion fuses, and before the working parties marched the gunners were ready waiting for the word, which was given directly the natives opened fire, and the shells almost at the same instant burst amongst them. Lieutenant Pichard made some excellent shell practice from the Armstrong guns, and also Sergeant-Major R. Hayes. The mortar battery was situated outside, on the right of No. 7 Redoubt, and in order to harass the enemy as much as possible, firing was carried on during the night, at uncertain hours, and the mortars were laid on different positions, so that they could never tell when and where the shell was coming. The practice of the mortars was very good, the shells dropping in their pits both in the pah, and on the hills to the right, burying and destroying everything near them. Captain Strover had command of the mortar battery, the mortars were fired, at intervals, during the whole day, whenever there were any signs of the presence of the natives in their pits. On Saturday an attack was made on the extreme right, and a 9-pounder gun accompanied a detachment of the 40th Regiment, and began by firing some rounds of common case into the bush, and subsequently, on the natives retiring to their rifle pits on the edge of the wood to the right, some shrapnel shells were sent amongst them; some time after the firing ceased on the part of the enemy.

On Sunday afternoon, I deeply regret to say, Lieutenant E. C. Macnaghten, R.A., was killed whilst laying a cohorn mortar in the extremity of the advance parallel, the ball passing through the wrist and entering the chest; he died almost immediately, firing his last shot on the anniversary of his firing the first one in this war; he had ably conducted the firing of the cohorn mortars, since the advance of the sap from No. 8 Redoubt, and had been in every engagement throughout the whole war. We were deprived of his most valuable assistance, and the Service has lost in him a most brave, efficient, and able officer ; he was beloved by all.

Sergeant J. Christie, R.A., a first-rate non-commissioned officer, was wounded in the shoulder in the advance parallel, early on Monday morning, whilst I was arranging with him about carrying on the practice. Some time afterwards, observing a "red war flag" hoisted on a hill to the rear of the pah, some 1900 yards distant, and also perceiving some natives working as if they intended to occupy a new position of rifle pits, when they would be obliged to retreat from the pah, the guns were laid, and some Armstrong shells, with time and concussion fuzes were sent amongst them ; one of these shells burst at the foot of the flagstaff, when they immediately hauled down "their flag," and it was not hoisted again. This is the only occasion I fairly got a good sight of the enemy. I could see them in relief against the sky on the crest of the hill. I suppose they imagined they were out of range ; but when they found the shell dropping amongst them they disappeared, and I saw them no more in that direction. The firing from the Armstrong guns and mortars commenced at 6A.M., and continued whenever a favourable opportunity offered until dusk.

The following evidence has been given concerning the action of the Armstrong shell with the concussion fuze only. Colour-Serjeant J. Morant, R.E. was at the head of the sap, and saw an Armstrong shell go through a rifle-pit, about four feet of earth, and burst inside, and heard the enemy shout as in pain. He also observed that the shell of the Armstrong gun entered the rifle-pits as soon or sooner, than the report was heard, so that the natives had not time to get out of the way. Bombardier J. Linger, No. 3 battalion, 12th brigade, R.A., was at the head of the sap, and in the advance parallel, working the coehorn mortars, when he saw several shells from the Armstrong guns go through the enemy's rifle-pits and burst inside. After the cessation of hostilities, one of the natives told my sergeant-major that they were sometimes able to get out of the way of the mortar or the large shells, but never out of the way of the shell* from the gun "all the same as rifle,"—meaning the Armstrong gun. As the shell was amongst them as soon as they heard the report, these natives have designated the Armstrong shell "the quick shell."

I found it had been the practice of placing every night in the sap-roller an 8-inch naval shell with a friction-tube fixed through the fuze, and a cord attached to it and passing through a hole in the side of the wooden box, and the end of the cord attached to the sap-roller (this was suggested by the Royal Engineers and carried out at their request by the Naval Brigade), so that if the natives attempted to capture the sap-roller, in rolling it, the shell would explode. In the event of their trying to take the sap-roller, I calculated that, in all probability, the main rifle-pits in front of the pah, about fifty yards from the sap-roller, would be lined with natives watching the operation, or at hand to give help to secure the roller if they required more assistance. The trap of the shell succeeded, the natives endeavouring to capture the roller on Saturday night; the shell exploded, on hearing which I left my tent and sent the Armstrong shell amongst them. The

* This applies to both time and concussion fuze.

Armstrong guns had been loaded and laid on their pits the last thing before dark every night. I also fired the mortars which had been laid on the pah, the shell bursting with good effect. Notwithstanding the skilfully constructed underground works of these natives, I feel certain that the Armstrong shell has searched them out and done execution,—to what extent, of course, I cannot tell. The natives themselves alone know ; I have no means of actually deciding. They are very jealous of our knowing any loss they may sustain. The different statements made both by those who were in the sap, as well as by the natives themselves, corroborate the observations taken from the battery ; viz., that the Armstrong shell, with concussion fuze only, entered the crest of the enemy's rifle-pits and burst inside. Whether there are few or many natives in the pits at the time cannot be ascertained. On Monday afternoon, an attack was made on our extreme right in the wood. A 9-pounder gun and a 24-pounder howitzer were taken down towards the wood ; the former under Captain Strover, R.A., and the latter under Lieutenant Pichard, R.A. The practice with common and shrapnel shell was with good effect after the natives had been driven from the bush to their rifle-pits by a few rounds of common case. These pits formed a continuation of cover from the Flagstaff Hill to the edge of the wood. Gunner J. Talford was wounded in the leg. He was one of the men serving the 9-pounder gun. During this attack the Armstrong guns were used against the main rifle-pits just in front of the pah to keep down the fire of the enemy on the head of the sap.

At 4 o'clock on the morning of the 19th March, I left the redoubt with an escort of the guard, and fired the two cast mortars at the pah, and two hours afterwards the white flag was flying from it. There can be no doubt of the superiority of the Armstrong gun over smooth-bored ordnance. The gun has done, and always will do, a great deal more than any other description of ordnance in the service, throwing the shell with greater precision, &c. There were forty time fuzes and 109 concussion fuzes expended ; in all, 109 Armstrong shell.

I have, &c.,

Admiralty, July 25, 1861.

THE following despatches have been received by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty from Commodore Seymour, C.B., the Senior Officer of Her Majesty's ships and vessels on the Australian station :

Pelorus, Auckland.

SIR,

April 2, 1861.

THE Naval Brigade under my command having this day returned to the "Pelorus," I beg to lay before the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty a statement of the services rendered by Lieut. A. H. W. Battiscombe, Senior Lieutenant of this ship, prior and subsequent to his joining Her Majesty's ship bearing my broad pendant, and I most earnestly hope that their Lordships will deem them sufficient to entitle him to his promotion. His conduct on all occasions has been most gallant and meritorious, particularly at the disastrous affair near Puketakanere on the 27th of June, 1860, (when, after I was wounded, he succeeded to the command of the seamen and marines), at Kahihi in October, 1860, and during the operations in the Valley of the Waitara, between the 29th December, 1860 and the 19th March, 1861. His name was brought forward in the general order issued by General Pratt, C.B., on that officer resigning the command to Lieut-General Cameron, C.B., and his qualifications as an Engineer recognized by Colonel Mould, Commanding Royal Engineers, in his report.

Before concluding this letter I wish also to recommend to their Lordships' favourable notice the Assistant-Surgeon of this ship, Mr. Robert Edwardes, who had medical charge of the Naval Brigade from the time of its landing to its re-embarkation.

He attended the wounded with the advanced skirmishers, under a heavy fire, on the 27th June, and his unremitting attention at all times, both in the field and in quarters, attracted the particular attention both of myself and of Mr. Mouat, C.B., the principal medical officer in the Taranaki field force.

I beg also to be permitted to express to their Lordships the gratification I have felt at the good conduct of Lieutenant J. C. M. Morris, R.M.A., and of Messrs. E. B. Wadlow and Charles F. Hotham, Midshipmen, the senior of their rank with the brigade.

I have, &c.,
(Signed) F. BEAUCHAMP SEYMOUR,
Commodore.

Extract from a despatch of Commodore Beauchamp Seymour, dated H.M.S. Pelorus, Auckland, New Zealand, 6th April, 1861, addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty.

“ON the afternoon of the 1st instant, the Naval Brigade embarked on board the “Niger.” We reached the "Pelorus" on the afternoon of the 2nd instant; and it will be my duty to lay before their Lordships, in a separate communication, a statement of the services rendered by various officers of the Brigade during the last eleven months. The conduct of all has been most exemplary, and I have much pleasure in stating that that of the seamen and marines, as a body, has been remarkably good: of course there were exceptions, but they were comparatively few in number, and the good example set by the petty officers, especially by John Gibson, gunner's mate, Thomas Avent, supernumerary captain of the afterguard, and James Veale, boatswain's mate, had a beneficial effect on all.

"I should feel deeply gratified were their Lordships pleased to permit me to express their approval of these men's conduct; and also I beg to bring to their notice the names of John P. Fisher, captain of the maintop, seaman gunner (who has lost a leg in action, and will be sent to England by the earliest opportunity after he is in a fit state to be moved), and of James Costello, coxswain of the launch, seaman gunner, who were the captains of the 8-inch guns in the advanced redoubts, and who invariably conducted themselves very much to my satisfaction."

Admiralty, July 25, 1861.

IN consideration of their services, as stated in the above despatch, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty have been pleased to promote Lieutenant A. H. W. Battiscombe, of the "Pelorus," to the rank of Commander, and have ordered the name of Mr. Robert Edwardes, Assistant-Surgeon, to be noted for promotion on his passing the necessary examination.

The names of the other officers and men mentioned have also been noted.

C. PAGET.

TREATY of Commerce and Navigation between
Her Majesty and the Sultan.

Signed at Kanlidja, April 29, 1861.

[Ratifications exchanged at Constantinople, July
9, 1861.]

HER Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, on the one part, and His Majesty the Emperor of the Ottomans, on the other part, being equally animated by the desire of extending the commercial relations between their respective dominions, have agreed, for this purpose, to conclude a Treaty of Commerce and Navigation, and have named as their respective Plenipotentiaries, that is to say :—

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Right Honourable Sir Henry Lytton Bulwer, a Member of Her Britannic Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, and Her Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the Sublime Porte ;

And His Majesty the Emperor of the Ottomans, His Highness Mchemed Emin Aali Pasha, President of the Council of the Tanzimat, and Acting Minister for Foreign Affairs, decorated with the Orders of the Medjidie and Merit of the First Class, Grand Cross of the Imperial Order of the Legion of Honour, of Saint Stephen of Austria, of the Red Eagle of Prussia, of Saint Alexander Newsky of Russia, and several other Foreign Orders ;

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon the following Articles :—

ARTICLE I.

All rights, privileges, and immunities which have been conferred on the subjects or ships of Great Britain by the existing Capitulations and Treaties, are confirmed now and for ever, with the exception of those clauses of the said Capitulations which it is the object of the present Treaty to modify ; and it is moreover expressly stipulated, that all rights, privileges, or immunities which the Sublime Porte now grants or may hereafter grant to, or suffer to be enjoyed by, the subjects, ships, commerce, or navigation of any other foreign Power, shall be equally granted to, and exercised and enjoyed by, the subjects, ships, commerce, and navigation of Great Britain.

ARTICLE II.

The subjects of Her Britannic Majesty, or their agents, shall be permitted to purchase, at all places in the Ottoman dominions and possessions (whether for the purposes of internal trade or of exportation) all articles, without any exception whatsoever, the produce or manufacture of the said dominions and possessions ; and the Sublime Porte having, in virtue of the Second Article of the Convention of Commerce of the 16th of August, 1838, formally engaged to abolish all monopolies of agricultural produce or of any other articles whatsoever, as well as all permits (teskérés) from the local Governors, either for the purchase of any article, or for its removal from one place to another, when purchased, any attempt to compel the subjects of Her Britannic Majesty to receive such permits from the local Governors shall be considered as an infraction of Treaties, and the Sublime Porte shall immediately punish with severity any Viziers or other officers who shall have been guilty of such misconduct, and shall render full justice to British subjects for all injuries or losses which they may duly prove themselves to have suffered thereby.

ARTICLE III.

If any article of Turkish produce or manufacture be purchased by British merchants or their agents, for the purpose of selling the same for internal consumption in Turkey, the said British merchants or their agents shall pay, at the purchase and sale of such articles, and in any manner of trade therein, the same duties that are paid in similar circumstances by the most favoured class of Ottoman subjects, or of foreigners engaged in the internal trade of Turkey.

ARTICLE IV.

No other or higher duties or charges shall be imposed in the dominions and possessions of either of the Contracting Parties, on the exportation of any article to the dominions and possessions of the other, than such as are or may be payable on the exportation of the like article to any other foreign country ; nor shall any prohibition be imposed on the exportation of any article from the dominions and possessions of either of the two Contracting Parties to the dominions and possessions of the other, which shall not equally extend to the exportation of the like article to any other country.

No charge or duty whatsoever will be demanded on any article of Turkish produce or manufacture purchased by British subjects or their agents, either at the place where such article is purchased, or in its transit from that place to the place whence it is exported, at which it will be subject to an export duty not exceeding eight per cent. calculated on the value at the place of shipment, and payable on exportation; and all articles which shall once have paid this duty shall not again be liable to the same duty, however they may have changed hands, within any part of the Ottoman dominions.

It is furthermore agreed that the duty of eight per cent. above mentioned will be annually reduced by one (1) per cent., until it shall be in this manner finally reduced to a fixed duty of one (1) per cent. ad valorem, destined to cover the general expenses of administration and control.

ARTICLE V.

No other or higher duties shall be imposed on the importation into the dominions and possessions of Her Britannic Majesty, of any article the produce or manufacture of the dominions and possessions of His Imperial Majesty the Sultan, from whatever place arriving, whether by sea or by land, and no other or higher duties shall be imposed on the importation into the dominions and possessions of His Imperial Majesty, of any article the produce or manufacture of Her Britannic Majesty's dominions and possessions, from whatever place arriving, than are or may be payable on the like article the produce or manufacture of any other foreign country; nor shall any prohibition be maintained or imposed on the importation of any article the produce or manufacture of the dominions and possessions of either of the Contracting Parties into the dominions and possessions of the other, which shall not equally extend to the importation of the like articles being the produce or manufacture of any other country.

His Imperial Majesty further engages that, save as hereinafter excepted, he will not prohibit the importation into his dominions and possessions of any article the produce or manufacture of the dominions and possessions of Her Britannic Majesty, from whatever place arriving ; and that the duties to be imposed on any article the produce or manufacture of the dominions or possessions of Her Britannic Majesty imported into the dominions or possessions of His Imperial Majesty, shall in no case exceed one fixed rate of eight (8) per cent. ad valorem, or a specific duty, fixed by common assent, equivalent thereto.

Such rate shall be calculated upon the value of such articles at the wharf, and shall be payable at the time of their being landed, if brought by sea, or at the first Custom-house they may reach, if brought by land.

If these articles, after having paid the import duty of eight (8) per cent., are sold either at the place of their arrival or in the interior of the country, neither the buyer nor the seller shall be charged with any further duty in respect to them; and if such articles should not be sold for consumption in Turkey, but should be re-exported within the space of six months, the same shall be considered as merchandize in transit by land, and be treated as is stated in Article XII ; the Administration of the Customs being bound to restore at the time of their re-exportation to the merchant, who shall be required to furnish proof that the goods in question have paid the import duty of eight (8) per cent., the difference between that duty and the duty levied on goods in transit by land, as set forth in the Article above cited.

ARTICLE VI.

It is understood that any article, the produce or manufacture of a foreign country, intended for importation into the United Principalities of Mol-do-Wallachia, or into the Principality of Servia, which shall pass through any other part of the Ottoman dominions, will not be liable to the payment of Customs duty until it reaches those Principalities; and, on the other hand, that any article of foreign produce or manufacture passing through those Principalities, but destined for some other part of the Ottoman dominions, will not be liable to the payment of Customs duty until such article reaches the first Custom-house under the direct administration of the Sublime Porte.

The same course shall be followed with respect to any article the produce or manufacture of those Principalities, as well as with respect to any article the produce or manufacture of any other portion of the Ottoman dominions, intended for exportation: such articles will be liable to the payment of Customs duties, the former to the Custom-house of the aforesaid Principalities, and the latter to the Ottoman Custom-house, the object being, that neither import nor export duties shall in any case be payable more than once.

ARTICLE VII.

The subjects of one of the Contracting Parties shall enjoy, in the dominions and possessions of the other, equality of treatment with native subjects in regard to warehousing, and also in regard to bounties, facilities, and drawbacks.

ARTICLE VIII.

All articles which are or may be legally importable into the dominions and possessions of Her Britannic Majesty, in British vessels, may likewise be imported in Ottoman vessels, without being liable to any other or higher duties or charges, of whatever denomination, than if such articles were imported in British vessels ; and reciprocally, all articles which are or may be legally importable into the dominions and possessions of His Imperial Majesty the Sultan in Ottoman vessels, may likewise be imported in British vessels, without being liable to any other or higher duties or charges, of whatever denomination, than if such articles were imported in Ottoman vessels. Such reciprocal equality of treatment shall take effect without distinction, whether such articles come directly from the place of origin or from any other country.

In the same manner, there shall be perfect equality of treatment in regard to exportation, so that the same export duties shall be paid, and the same bounties and drawbacks allowed, in the dominions and possessions of either of the Contracting Parties, on the exportation of any article which is or may be legally exportable therefrom, whether such exportation shall take place in Ottoman or in British vessels, and whatever may be the place of destination, whether a port of either of the Contracting Parties or of any third Power.

ARTICLE IX.

No duties of tonnage, harbour, pilotage, lighthouse, quarantine, or other similar or corresponding duties, of whatever nature, or under whatever denomination, levied in the name or for the profit of Government, public functionaries, private individuals, corporations, or establishments of any kind, shall be imposed in the ports of the dominions and possessions of either country upon the vessels of the other country, which shall not equally and under the same conditions be imposed in the like cases on national vessels in general. Such equality of treatment shall apply reciprocally to the respective vessels, from whatever port or place they may arrive, and whatever may be their place of destination.

ARTICLE X.

All vessels which according to British law are to be deemed British vessels, and all vessels which according to Ottoman law are to be deemed Ottoman vessels, shall, for the purposes of this Treaty, be deemed British and Ottoman vessels respectively.

ARTICLE XI.

No charge whatsoever shall be made upon British goods being the produce or manufacture of the British dominions or possessions, whether in British or other ships, nor upon any goods the produce or manufacture of any other foreign country carried in British ships, when the same shall pass through the Straits of the Dardanelles or of the Bosphorus, whether such goods shall pass through those Straits in the ships that brought them, or shall have been transhipped to other vessels; or whether, after having been sold for exportation, they shall, for a certain limited time, be landed in order to be placed in other vessels for the continuance of their voyage.

In the latter case the goods in question shall be deposited at Constantinople in the magazines of the Custom-house, called Transit magazines; and in any other places where there is no entrepôt, they shall be placed under the charge of the Administration of the Customs.

ARTICLE XII.

The Sublime Porte desiring to grant by means of gradual concessions all facilities in its power to transit by land, it is stipulated and agreed that the duty of three (3) per cent. levied up to this time on articles imported into Turkey, in their passage through Turkey to other countries, shall be reduced to two (2) per cent. payable, as the duty of three per cent. has been paid hitherto, on arriving in the Ottoman dominions; and at the end of eight years, to be reckoned from the day of the exchange of the ratifications of the present Treaty, to a fixed and definite tax of one (1) per cent., which shall be levied, as is to be the case with respect to Turkish produce exported, to defray the expense of registration.

The Sublime Porte at the same time declares that it reserves to itself the right to establish, by a special enactment, the measures to be adopted for the prevention of fraud.

ARTICLE XIII.

Her Britannic Majesty's subjects, or their agents, trading in goods the produce or manufacture of foreign countries, shall be subject to the same taxes, and enjoy the same rights, privileges, and immunities as foreign subjects dealing in goods, the produce or manufacture of their own country.

ARTICLE XIV.

An exception to the stipulations laid down in the Vth Article shall be made in regard to tobacco, in any shape whatsoever, and also in regard to salt, which two articles shall cease to be included among those which the subjects of Her Britannic Majesty are permitted to import into the Ottoman dominions.

British subjects, however, or their agents, buying or selling tobacco or salt for consumption in Turkey, shall be subject to the same regulations, and shall pay the same duties, as the most favoured Ottoman subjects trading in the two articles aforesaid ; and furthermore, as a compensation for the prohibition of the two articles above-mentioned, no duty whatsoever shall in future be levied on those articles when exported from Turkey by the subjects of Her Britannic Majesty.

British subjects shall, nevertheless, be bound to declare the quantity of tobacco and salt thus exported, to the proper Custom-house authorities, who shall, as heretofore, have the right to watch over the export of these articles, without thereby being entitled to levy any tax thereon on any pretence whatsoever.

ARTICLE XV.

It is understood between the two High Contracting Parties, that the Sublime Porte reserves to itself the faculty and right of issuing a general prohibition against the importation into the Ottoman dominions of gunpowder, cannon, arms of war, or military stores ; but such prohibition will not come into operation until it shall have been officially notified, and will apply only to the articles mentioned in the decree enacting the prohibition. Any of these articles which have not been so specifically prohibited, shall, on being imported into the Ottoman dominions, be subject to the local regulations, unless Her Britannic Majesty's Embassy shall think fit to apply for a special license, which license will in that case be granted, provided no valid objection thereto can be alleged.

Gunpowder, in particular, when allowed to be imported, will be liable to the following stipulations :

1st. It shall not be sold by subjects of Her Britannic Majesty in quantities exceeding the quantities prescribed by the local regulations.

2ndly. When a cargo or a large quantity of gunpowder arrives in an Ottoman port on board a British vessel, such vessel shall be anchored at a particular spot to be designated by the local authorities, and the gunpowder shall thence be conveyed, under the inspection of such authorities, to depôts or fitting places designated by the Government, to which the parties interested shall have access under due regulations.

Fowling-pieces, pistols, and ornamental or fancy weapons, as also small quantities of gunpowder for sporting, reserved for private use, shall not be subject to the stipulations of the present Article.

ARTICLE XVI.

The firmans required for British merchant-vessels, on passing through the Dardanelles and the Bosphorus, shall always be delivered in such manner as to occasion to such vessels the least possible delay.

ARTICLE XVII.

The captains of British merchant-vessels, with goods on board destined for the Ottoman Empire, shall be obliged, immediately on their arrival at the port to which they are bound, to deposit in the Custom-house of the said port a true copy of their manifest.

ARTICLE XVIII.

Contraband goods will be liable to confiscation by the Ottoman Treasury ; but a report or procès-verbal of the alleged act of contraband must, as soon as the said goods are seized by the authorities, be drawn up and communicated to the Consular authority of the foreign subject to whom the goods said to be contraband shall belong ; and no goods can be confiscated as contraband, unless the fraud with regard to them shall be duly and legally proved.

ARTICLE XIX.

All merchandize, the produce or manufacture of the Ottoman dominions and possessions, imported into the dominions and possessions of Her Britannic Majesty, shall be treated in the same manner as the like merchandize the produce or manufacture of the most favoured nation.

All rights, privileges, or immunities which are now or may hereafter be granted to, or suffered to be enjoyed by, the subjects, ships, commerce, or navigation of any foreign Power in the British dominions or possessions, shall be equally granted to, and exercised and enjoyed by, the subjects, ships, commerce, and navigation of the Ottoman Porte.

ARTICLE XX.

The present Treaty, when ratified, shall be substituted for the Convention concluded between the two High Contracting Parties on the 16th of August, 1838, and shall remain in force for twenty-eight years from the day of the exchange of the ratifications; each of the High Contracting Parties being, however, at liberty to give to the other, at the end of fourteen years (that time being fixed, as the provisions of this Treaty will then have come into full force), notice for its revision, or for its determination at the expiration of a year from the date of that notice, and so again at the end of twenty-one years.

The present Treaty shall receive its execution in all and every one of the provinces of the Ottoman Empire, that is to say, in all the possessions of His Imperial Majesty the Sultan situated in Europe or in Asia, in Egypt and in the other parts of Africa belonging to the Sublime Porte, in Servia, and in the United Principalities of Moldavia and Wallachia.

The Sublime Porte declares that she is ready to grant to other foreign Powers who may seek to obtain them, the commercial advantages contained in the stipulations of the present Treaty.

ARTICLE XXI.

It is always understood that Her Britannic Majesty does not pretend, by any Article in the present Treaty, to stipulate for more than the plain and fair construction of the terms employed, nor to preclude in any manner the Ottoman Government from the exercise of its rights of internal administration, where the exercise of those rights does not evidently infringe upon the privileges accorded by ancient Treaties, or by the present Treaty, to British subjects or British merchandize.

ARTICLE XXII.

The High Contracting Parties have agreed to appoint, jointly, Commissioners for the settlement of a Tariff of Custom-house duties, to be levied in conformity with the stipulations of the present Treaty, as well upon merchandize of every description being the produce or manufacture of the British dominions and possessions imported into the Sultan's dominions and possessions, as upon articles of every description the produce or manufacture of the dominions and possessions of the Sultan, which British subjects or their agents are free to purchase in any part of the Ottoman dominions and possessions for exportation to Great Britain or to any other country.

The new Tariff to be so concluded shall remain in force during seven years, dating from the first of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

Each of the Contracting Parties shall have the right, a year before the expiration of that term, to demand the revision of the Tariff. But if, during the seventh year, neither the one nor the other of the Contracting Parties shall avail itself of this right, the Tariff then existing shall continue to have the force of law for seven more years, dating from the day of the expiration of the seven preceding years ; and the same shall be the case with respect to every successive period of seven years.

ARTICLE XXIII.

The present Treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Constantinople in two calendar months, or sooner if possible, and shall be carried into execution from the first of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

Done at Kanlidja, on the twenty-ninth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of AUGUST 9,
1861.

The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Tuesday, August 6, 1861.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

WE are commanded by Her Majesty to release you from further attendance in Parliament, and at the same time to convey to you Her Majesty's acknowledgments for the zeal and assiduity with which you have applied yourselves to the performance of your duties during the session of Parliament now brought to a close.

Her Majesty commands us to inform you, that Her relations with Foreign Powers are friendly and satisfactory, and Her Majesty trusts that there is no danger of any disturbance of the Peace of Europe.

The progress of events in Italy has led to the union of the greater part of that peninsula in one Monarchy under King Victor Emmanuel. Her Majesty has, throughout, abstained from any active interference in the transactions which have led to this result, and Her earnest wish as to these affairs is, that they may be settled in the manner best suited to the welfare and happiness of the Italian people.

The Dissensions which arose some months ago in the United States of North America have, unfortunately, assumed the character of open war. Her Majesty, deeply lamenting this calamitous result, has determined, in common with the other Powers of Europe, to preserve a strict neutrality between the contending parties.

Her Majesty commands us to inform you, that the measures adopted for the restoration of order and tranquillity in Syria, in virtue of conventions between Her Majesty, the Emperor of Austria, the Emperor of the French, the King of Prussia, the Emperor of Russia, and The Sultan, having accomplished their purpose, the European troops which, in pursuance of those conventions, were for a time stationed in Syria, to co-operate with the troops and authorities of The Sultan, have been withdrawn ; and Her Majesty trusts that the arrangements which have been made for the administration of the districts which had been disturbed will henceforth secure their internal tranquillity.

Her Majesty has seen with satisfaction the rapid improvement in the internal condition of Her East Indian territories, and the progress which has been made towards equalizing the revenue and expenditure of that part of Her Empire.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

Her Majesty commands us to convey to you Her warm acknowledgments for the liberal supplies which you have granted for the service of the present year ; and Her Majesty has seen with satisfaction that, after amply providing for the wants of the public service, you have been able to make a sensible diminution in the taxes levied upon Her people.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Her Majesty commands us to express to you the deep gratification with which She has witnessed the spirit of devoted patriotism which continues to animate Her Volunteer Forces, and the admiration with which She has observed their rapid progress in discipline and military efficiency.

Her Majesty has given Her cordial assent to the Act for completing the number of the Members of the House of Commons, by allotting the forfeited seats of Sudbury and Saint Alban's.

Her Majesty trusts that the Act for improving the Laws relating to Bankruptcy and Insolvency will be productive of important advantage to the trade and commerce of Her subjects.

Her Majesty has given Her ready assent to Acts for consolidating and assimilating the Criminal Law of England and Ireland, and for promoting the revision of the Statute Law.

Her Majesty has given Her assent to important Acts which She trusts will have the effect of opening more largely employment in the public service to the European and Native Inhabitants of India, of improving the means of legislation, of furthering the ends of justice, and of promoting the contentment and well-being of all classes of Her Majesty's Indian subjects.

Nominal Rolls of the Field Officers of Cavalry and Infantry, as they stand on the effective lists of Lieutenant-Colonels and Majors Regimentally, on the 1st October next, according to the Official Returns of the Adjutants-General of the three Presidencies, will be prepared and published by the Government of India as soon after that date as possible. In these Rolls the Lieutenant-Colonels and Majors will be grouped according to the principles exhibited in the preceding scales ; and it will be announced that they will be permitted to retire with the annuities placed opposite their respective names, provided their applications are received by their respective Governments prior to the 15th December next.

It is to be clearly understood that the annuity granted to each Officer will be that due to his position in the nominal rolls above specified ; and that no change whatever in that position, or in the annuity assigned to him will be admitted as a consequence of any casualty that may occur or become known at the Adjutant-General's Office after the 1st October, 1861.

All retirements under this scheme will date from the 31st December next, and the promotions arising therefrom will take effect from the 1st January, 1862. The promotions will be carried out on the following principle :

The names (printed in italics) of such of the Lieutenant-Colonels as retire under the conditions now offered, will remain on the list, for the purpose of regulating the succession to Colonel and to Colonel's allowance: thus, should the Senior Regimental Lieutenant-Colonel, at either Presidency, retire on the annuity now to be offered, his name will remain on the list until his death, or until a casualty shall occur among the Regimental Colonels, in either of which cases, his name will be removed, no promotion being made in his room: On another casualty occurring, among the Regimental Colonels, should the name then at the head of the list of Lieutenant-Colonels be that of an Officer who has not accepted the annuity, he will succeed, as usual, to the Colonel's allowance, and promotions will be made in succession.

The promotion, in succession to the Lieutenant-Colonels who retire under this scheme will be made in the proportion of one to every two of such retirements; on the other hand, every vacancy created among the Majors will be followed by promotion in the usual course.

Should the number of Regimental Field Officers retiring on these terms fall short of 300 in the three Presidencies, the Government of India will be authorized to offer annuities of £120 per annum, in addition to the pensions to which they may be entitled, to so many of the Regimental Captains of the three Presidencies as may suffice to make up that number, the offer to them to be made in succession, according to length of service reckoning from date of first Commission, and to be confined to those of, or above, 25 years' service.

The Regimental Lieutenant-Colonels and Majors of the Cavalry and Infantry who have elected for service with the new Line Regiments, or in the Staff Corps, will have the option of retiring upon the terms now offered.

It is to be distinctly understood that this is a final arrangement, and that no further proposals connected with schemes for the retirement of Officers of the Indian Service will be entertained.

Officers of the Indian Armies on furlough in this country desirous of retiring from the service, on the terms now offered, should address their applications to the Secretary to Government, in the Military Department, of the Presidency to which they belong.

NOTICE.

India Office,

August 12, 1861.

IN consequence of some misapprehensions being understood to exist as to the interpretation of the 98th paragraph of the General Order of the Governor-General of India, dated 10th April last, quoted in the margin*, it is notified, for

* "Officers of the Staff Corps, under the rank of Major-General, whom the Governments of India may not see fit to employ in any capacity, will not be allowed to draw pay for more than four years, of which one year may be on the Indian scale, and three years on the scale fixed for officers "out of India," after which period they will be placed on half-pay, or on pension, according to the scale of their rank, if entitled thereto."

general information, that, upon a reconsideration of the order, and of the instructions upon which it was based, Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India in Council has pointed out to the Government of India that all officers whom that Government may not consider fit for employment are to be dealt with under clause 7 of the Staff Corps Warrant, but that another rule must be laid down and followed in the case of officers who are perfectly fit for employment, but who, from circumstances of one kind or another, may be out of employment; for example, those who, in consequence of having overstayed the prescribed limit of absence, with retention of appointment, may find themselves, on their return to India, out of employment.

Such officers, on their return to India, will be placed on the rate of pay specified for their respective ranks in the Staff Warrant, for officers while required to remain in India; and they will retain this rate of pay for a year, before the expiration of which period it is expected an opportunity will have arisen for placing them in some suitable appointment.

Should no opportunity occur within the year of placing a perfectly qualified officer, returning from furlough, in a situation suited to him, the Governments in India will be authorized to continue the Indian rate of pay until a suitable opening can be found for his employment.

Officers will not be placed on half-pay except under the operation of one or other of the two clauses 7 and 10 of the Staff Corps Warrant.

The Government of India have been directed to modify the 98th paragraph of the General Order accordingly.

War-Office, 13th August, 1861.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the decoration of the Victoria Cross on the under-mentioned Officers and Soldiers, whose claims to the same have been submitted for Her Majesty's approval, on account of Acts of Bravery performed by them in China, on the occasion of the assault and capture of the North Taku Fort on the 21st of August, 1860, as recorded against their several names; viz.:

Lieutenant (now Captain) Robert Montessor Rogers, 44th Regiment (now of the 90th Regiment); No. 220. Private John M'Dougall, 44th Regiment; Lieutenant Edmund Henry Lenon, 67th Regiment—For distinguished gallantry in swimming the Ditches, and entering the North Taku Fort by an embrasure during the assault. They were the first of the English established on the walls of the Fort, which they entered in the order in which their names are here recorded, each one being assisted by the others to mount the embrasure.

Lieutenant (now Captain) Nathaniel Burslem, 67th Regiment (now of the 60th Regiment); No. 612. Private Thomas Lane, 67th Regiment. For distinguished gallantry in swimming the Ditches of the North Taku Fort, and persevering in attempting during the assault, and before the entrance of the Fort had been effected by any one, to enlarge an opening in the Wall, through which they eventually entered, and, in doing so, were both severely wounded.

Ensign (now Lieutenant) John Worthy Chaplin, 67th Regiment (now of the 100th Regiment).—For distinguished gallantry at the North Taku Fort. This Officer was carrying the Queen's Colour of the Regiment, and first planted the Colours on the breach made by the storming party, assisted by Private Lane, of the 67th Regiment, and subsequently on the cavalier of the Fort, which he was the first to mount. In doing this, he was severely wounded.

Hospital Apprentice Arthur Fitzgibbon, Indian Medical Establishment.—For having behaved with great coolness and courage at the capture of the North Taku Fort, on the 21st of August, 1860. On the morning of that day he accompanied a wing of the 67th Regiment, when it took up a position within 500 yards of the Fort. Having quitted cover, he proceeded, under a very heavy fire, to attend to a Dhoolie-bearer, whose wound he had been directed to bind up; and, while the Regiment was advancing under the Enemy's fire, he ran across the open to attend to another wounded man, in doing which he was himself severely wounded.

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of AUGUST 20,
1861.

EARL RUSSELL, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has received a Despatch from Mr. McCoskry, Acting British Consul at Lagos, dated July 2, 1861, of which the following is an extract :

“I HAVE the honour to inform your Lordship that, notwithstanding the signature of the Treaty by the King of Porto Novo, I found so many obstacles to trade, arising chiefly from old native custom, as to deter most merchants from settling there. I therefore thought necessary to go to Porto Novo in Her Majesty's ship Brune, in order to have them removed, where we arrived at 4 P.M. on the 14th. The next day I went on shore to the King, and after a lengthened interview of four hours, occupied in pointing out that our measures for opening his country for free legitimate trade would result as beneficially to him as to us, I left him, he having promised to lay the matter before his Chiefs and Head Men next day.

“Accordingly, next day they met, and consented to the terms I had drawn up.

“On the 17th, accompanied by several Europeans as witnesses, I again visited the King, when the Treaty, of which the inclosed is a copy, was signed, the King himself pointedly asking his Chiefs if they had well considered the matter before signing.

“On my return I called a meeting of the Chiefs of Badagry, and explained the terms of a Mercantile Treaty I drew up for their signature. They, with two exceptions, consented at once, and subsequently the whole of them signed the Treaty, of which a copy is herewith transmitted.”

“Inclosure 1, in Mr. McCoskry’s Despatch of July 2nd, 1861.

“Copy of the Treaty signed by the King and Chiefs of Porto Novo, June 17, 1861.

“WHEREAS, there being at present no known and recognised regulations with special reference to trading transactions between British subjects, and others under British protection, and the subjects of the King of Porto Novo, “William McCoskry, Her Britannic Majesty’s Acting Consul, on behalf of British subjects, Africans under British protection, and all legal traders, subjects of countries in amity with Great Britain, and the King of Porto Novo on behalf of his subjects, have agreed to the following articles:

“Art. I. British subjects and other legal traders shall be allowed to go and come freely, to and from Porto Novo and any town within the territories of the King of Porto Novo, and to erect houses or factories for the collection and purchase of palm oil and other produce.

Art. II. Legal traders shall be allowed to acquire, either by grant or purchase, land in any part of the town or territory of Porto Novo, for the erection of houses or factories for the purpose of trade, or for the cultivation of cotton or any other produce, the said houses or factories to be of whatever construction may be considered best adapted to the business of the owner and the security of his property.

“Art. III. All classes of the people, subjects of Porto Novo or residing therein, shall be allowed at all times to enter the houses of legal traders established in the territories of the King of Porto Novo, there to sell and barter the produce of the country ; the natives so trading to be subject to no imposts more than when trading one with another.

“Art. IV. The King of Porto Novo shall punish, upon conviction, any of his subjects who commit theft, robbery, or incendiarism, affecting the property of British subjects and any other legal trader, and will use every means to bring such offenders to speedy justice.

“Art. V. The King of Porto Novo shall cause any of his subjects or other natives residing in his territories under his protection, who may be indebted to traders, to pay such debts within reasonable time, and if not paid within the time so fixed, the property belonging to such person so owing, shall be sold, and applied to the liquidation of the claims against him.

“Art. VI. British subjects and other legal traders shall be allowed to employ in their business, within the territories of Porto Novo, the natives of any other country, either on shore, in their houses and factories, or on the lagoon, in the transport of goods or produce.

“ Inclosure 2, in Mr. McCoskry’s Despatch of July 2nd, 1861.

“ Copy of the Treaty signed by the Chiefs of Badagry, June 19, 1861.

“ WHEREAS, the legitimate trade of Badagry has hitherto been greatly obstructed by certain native regulations.

“ William McCoskry, Her Britannic Majesty’s Acting Consul, on behalf of British subjects, others under British protection, and all legal traders, subjects of countries in amity with Great Britain, and the Chiefs of Badagry, on behalf of themselves and their people.

“ Art. I. The people of Badagry and others, natives of the neighbouring countries, trading in or to Badagry, shall be allowed to trade freely and directly with the merchants trading at Badagry in their own establishments, and none shall, on that account, be subject to any impost more than when trading one with another.

“ Art. II. No native nor Chief of Badagry shall control in any way the trading transactions of any merchant by fixing the price at which any article is to be sold, but shall leave that to be settled between the buyer and seller themselves.

“ Art. III. The Chiefs of Badagry shall cause their subjects to pay their just debts to traders within reasonable time, and, if not paid within the time fixed, shall cause the property of the person so owing, to be sold to liquidate the debt.

“ Act. IV. Any person subject to the Chiefs of Badagry that may be convicted of theft, robbery, incendiarism, or any other offence, shall be punished by the Chiefs, and they shall use proper means to bring any person accused of any offence, to justice.

“ Art. V. Traders at Badagry shall be allowed to employ in any legal work any person they may choose, whether a native of Badagry or not, and no native nor Chief of Badagry shall obstruct persons so employed, in the performance of their work.

“ Art. VI. In consideration of the due fulfilment of the foregoing Articles, the traders at Badagry shall pay a duty of $1\frac{1}{2}$ heads of cowries on every 150 gallons of palm oil, or nut oil, and 2 strings of cowries on every pound of ivory exported from Badagry, the amount arising from such duty shall be divided quarterly, by Her Britannic Majesty’s Consul amongst the Chiefs of Badagry, according to the conduct and capabilities in furthering the interests of commerce and civilization.

“ It is clearly understood that the payment of one head per 30 gallons hitherto charged by Badagry people on palm oil coming from Porto Novo, and all other such charges and imposts on produce, cease when this agreement comes in force.

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of SEPTEMBER 20, 1861.

Foreign Office, September 19, 1861.

EARL RUSSELL, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has received a Dispatch from Mr. McCoskry, the Acting British Consul at Lagos, dated August 7, inclosing a Treaty concluded by him and Commander Bedingfeld, R.N., commanding Her Majesty's sloop Prometheus, with Docemo, King of Lagos, for the cession of the Isle and

Port of Lagos to Her Majesty. The Treaty is as follows :—

TREATY between Norman B. Bedingfeld, Commander, Her Majesty's sloop Prometheus, and Senior Officer of the Bights Division, and William McCoskry, Esquire, Her Britannic Majesty's Acting Consul, on the part of Her Majesty the Queen of Great Britain, and Docemo, King of Lagos, on the part of himself and Chiefs.

ARTICLE I.

IN order that the Queen of England may be the better enabled to assist, defend, and protect the inhabitants of Lagos, and to put an end to the Slave Trade in this and the neighbouring countries, and to prevent the destructive wars so frequently undertaken by Dahomey and others for the capture of Slaves, I Docemo do, with the consent and advice of my Council, give, transfer, and by these presents grant and confirm, unto the Queen of Great Britain, Her Heirs and Successors, for ever, the Port and Island of Lagos, with all the rights, profits, territories, and appurtenances whatsoever thereunto belonging, and as well the profits and revenue, as the direct, full, and absolute dominion and sovereignty of the said Port, Island, and Premises, with all the royalties thereof, freely, fully, entirely, and absolutely. I do also covenant and grant, that the quiet and peaceable possession thereof shall, with all possible speed, be freely and effectually delivered to the Queen of Great Britain, or such person as Her Majesty shall thereunto appoint, for Her use in the performance of this grant; the inhabitants of the said island and territories, as the Queen's subjects, and under Her sovereignty, crown, jurisdiction, and government, being still suffered to live there.

ARTICLE II.

Docemo will be allowed the use of the title of King, in its usual African signification, and will be permitted to decide disputes between natives of Lagos, with their consent, subject to appeal to British laws.

ARTICLE III.

In the transfer of lands the stamp of Docemo affixed to the document will be proof that there are no other native claims upon it ; and for this purpose he will be permitted to use it as hitherto.

In consideration of the cession, as before mentioned, of the port and island and territories of Lagos, the representatives of the Queen of Great Britain do promise, subject to the approval of Her Majesty, that Docemo shall receive an annual pension from the Queen of Great Britain equal to the net revenue hitherto annually received by him ; such pension to be paid at such periods and in such mode as may hereafter be determined.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament, passed in the 11th year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post-Office.

And whereas certain powers are also given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament passed in the 18th year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Stamp Duties on newspapers, and to provide for the transmission by post of printed periodical publications."

9. Every packet which shall be transmitted by the post under the 6th, 7th, and 8th clauses of this Warrant, shall be so transmitted in conformity with, and under and subject to, the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinafter contained (that is to say) :

Every British newspaper which shall be posted in the United Kingdom under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be printed and published at intervals not exceeding thirty-one days between any two consecutive numbers or parts of such publication, and the same shall be registered by the proprietor or printer thereof at the General Post Office, in London, and shall be posted within fifteen days from the date of its publication, and the title and date of the newspaper shall be printed at the top of every page thereof.

There shall be no word or communication printed on any newspaper transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, after the publication thereof, or upon any cover thereof, nor any writing or marks upon any such newspaper, or upon any cover thereof, other than and accept the name and address of the person to whom the same is sent, but the name or title of such newspaper, and the name and address of the publisher, news-vender, or agent by whom the same is sent, may be printed on the cover thereof.

There shall be no paper or thing enclosed in or with any such newspaper.

No packet, which in length, or breadth, or width, shall exceed the dimensions of two feet, shall be forwarded by the post under the 6th, 7th, and 8th clauses of this Warrant.

The terms "books, publications, or works of literature or art," in this Warrant used, shall, for the purposes of this Warrant, mean and comprise all such articles as in their general character are either literary, or consist of printed, written, engraved, or lithographed matter (although not strictly literary) including books (whether printed, written, or plain), publications or compilations (whether in print or in manuscript), almanacs, printed or lithographed letters, and such artistic productions as prints, maps (whether on paper, or canvas, or cloth, and whether printed or written), and photographs, when not on glass, or in frames containing glass, and any description of paper, parchment, or vellum (whether printed, lithographed, written upon, or plain, or any mixture of the four), together with any binding, mounting, or covering, of or upon, or belonging to any such article or production, or any portion thereof, or of or belonging to any paper, parchment, or vellum, and including also any cases or rollers of prints, or maps, book markers (whether of paper or otherwise), pencils, pens, or other things usually appertaining to any such article or production, paper, parchment, or vellum, or necessary for its safe transmission, which shall be sent in the same packet with any such article or production to which they or it shall belong. Provided, nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall extend to authorize the sending by the post, under the 7th and 8th clauses of this Warrant, of any patterns, or books of patterns, or papers of patterns, of any article or thing whatsoever, unless such patterns consist merely of paper.

Every packet transmitted by the post under the 6th, 7th, and 8th clauses of this Warrant, shall be sent open at the ends or sides and either without a cover or in a cover or envelope open at the ends or sides.

No packet transmitted by the post under the 7th and 8th clauses of this Warrant, shall contain any written letter either closed or open, nor any written communication in the nature of a letter either closed or open (whether such letter or communication be addressed to or intended for the person to whom the packet shall be directed, or any other person), nor any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, nor any other enclosure not authorized by this Warrant sent in or with any such packet, nor shall there be any written letter or written communication in the nature of a letter in or upon any such packet or on the cover or envelope thereof.

Every packet transmitted by the post under the 6th and 8th clauses of this Warrant, and posted in the United Kingdom, shall be put into the Post Office at such hours in the day and under all such regulations as the Postmaster-General may appoint.

Upon every packet transmitted by the post under the 6th and 8th clauses of this Warrant, which shall be posted in the United Kingdom, the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of the same being posted.

10. All letters, notices, and other communications (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum) partly printed or partly lithographed, and partly written, which, if wholly written, would not be considered letters or communications in the nature of letters, shall and may be transmitted by the post under and subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, conditions, and rates respectively in the 7th, 8th, and 9th clauses of this Warrant mentioned and contained.

11. Any letter, notice, or other communication (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum) partly printed or partly lithographed, and partly written, which, if wholly written, would be considered a letter or a communication in the nature of a letter, shall not be entitled to the privilege of being transmitted by the post under or by virtue of the 7th, 8th, and 9th clauses of this Warrant, or the regulations, orders, directions, conditions, and rates therein respectively contained. And every such last-mentioned letter, notice, or other communication sent by the post, shall be deemed and considered to be a letter or a communication in the nature of a letter, within the intent and meaning of the 9th clause of this Warrant.

12. If any question shall arise whether any such letter, notice, or other communication is entitled to the privilege of a printed paper, so far as respects the transmission thereof by the post, or of being sent by the post, under or by virtue of the 7th, 8th, and 9th clauses of this Warrant, the same shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereupon shall be final.

13. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post, under the 6th, 7th, and 8th clauses of this Warrant, shall in length, or breadth, or width, exceed the dimensions of two feet, or if any such packet, or the cover or envelope thereof, shall not be open at the ends or sides, or if any such packet shall be sent otherwise than in conformity with the terms, conditions, and regulations hereinbefore in the 9th clause of this Warrant contained, every such respective packet shall and may be detained and opened, and at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof; and every such respective packet, on being so returned or given up, shall, at the option of the Postmaster-General, be either free of postage, or be charged with any rate of postage he may think fit, not exceeding the postage to which it would have been liable as a letter.

14. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post under the 8th clause of this Warrant, from the United Kingdom to the Republic of Venezuela (any such packet posted in London, and sent from any department or office in or connected with the public service of Her Majesty which shall keep a postage account with the General Post-Office in London, and the postage thereof being charged in such account only excepted) shall be posted in the United Kingdom without any postage paid thereon, or with a postage paid thereon less in amount than the rate of postage to which such packet is liable, under and by virtue of the regulations hereinbefore contained, every such packet shall be detained and opened, and at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall be dealt with and chargeable in like manner as is hereinbefore directed with respect to any packet not open at the ends or sides, or exceeding in length, or breadth, or width, the dimensions of two feet.

15. The respective letters and packets transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant shall be subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and rates of postage respectively contained in a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, under the hands of two of the said Commissioners, bearing date the 19th day of February, 1855, relating to redirected rates of postage upon letters and packets which shall be redirected and again forwarded by the post.

16. The rates of postage chargeable on letters, books, publications, or works of literature or art, and other printed papers transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be in lieu of any rates of British postage now chargeable by law thereon.

17. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to any letters, newspapers, books, publications, or works of literature or art, or other printed papers, sent between the Republic of Venezuela and France, or sent otherwise than in closed mails, between the Republic of Venezuela and any foreign country, or British colony through France.

18. The several terms and expressions in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

19. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, may by warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed or altered, or any of the orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates, orders, directions, regulations, and conditions in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

20. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of January, 1862.

several ports, harbours, roadsteads, sounds, channels, bays, and navigable rivers, in the United Kingdom, and of His Majesty's docks, dock-yards, arsenals, wharfs, moorings, and stores therein, and for repealing several Acts passed for that purpose;" it is enacted (among other things) that no person or persons shall take any ballast or shingle from the shores or banks, or any portion of the shores or banks, of any port, harbour, or haven of this Kingdom, from which the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom for the time being shall find it necessary for the protection of such port, harbour, or haven, or the works thereof, by order, under their hands, or the hand of their Secretary, and published in the London Gazette, shall prohibit the taking or removing of such shingle or ballast, upon pain of forfeiting for every such offence the sum of ten pounds.

And whereas we, as Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom, have found it necessary, for the protection of the harbour or haven of Belfast Lough, in that part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, to prohibit the taking or removing of any ballast or shingle from the shores or banks, or any portion of the shores or banks of the said harbour or haven. Now we do hereby order that no person or persons shall take or remove any ballast or shingle from such shores or banks, or any portion of the said shores or banks.

Given under our hands this 27th day of September, 1861.

Board of Trade, Whitehall, October 8, 1861.

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade, have received from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from the Spanish Minister for Foreign Affairs, announeing that in consequence of representations made by Her Majesty's Government as to the hardship of exaeting fines from vessels in ballast presenting themselves in the Ports of Cuba, without being provided with certificates from Spanish Consuls, the Spanish Government have seen fit to remit the fines levied on certain British vessels, but it is expressly stated that these remissions are to be considered as Special Acts of Grace and not as precedents for future cases.

It is important therefore that all British vessels proceeding to the Ports of Cuba should be provided with such Certificates.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the Duties of Postage," power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from time to time, by Warrant, under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage, or inland postage, payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid ;

And whereas by an Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the Duties of Postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office," further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and power is also given to the Postmaster-General (amongst other things) to collect and receive the foreign and colonial postage charged or chargeable on any letters sent by the post, and also, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to require the postage, British, Colonial, or Foreign, of any letters sent by the post to be pre-paid, either in money or in stamps, as he might think fit, on the same being put into the post-office, and also with such consent to abolish or restrict the prepayment in money of postage on letters sent by the post either altogether or on certain letters, and to require the pre-payment thereof to be in stamps, and also to refuse to receive or send by the post any letters tendered contrary to any regulations thereby made; and power is also given to the Postmaster-General, and any officer of the Post-Office, to detain any letters which should be posted or sent by the post contrary to the regulations therein mentioned, and to open such letters, and either to return them to the senders thereof, or to forward them to the places of their destination, charged, in either case, with such rates of postage as the Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, should from time to time direct ;

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by a certain Warrant, under their hands, bearing date the 19th day of May, 1857, did direct that in every letter, not exceeding half-an-ounce in weight, transmitted by the post between any place in the United Kingdom, and (among other colonies) Natal, there should be charged and taken in lieu of any rates of British postage, then payable by law, on such letters an uniform British rate of sixpence, and it is expedient to make regulations for the pre-payment of the several rates of postage payable on the letters hereinafter mentioned ;

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this present Warrant under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners (by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided) order and direct as follows ; that is to say :—

1. On every letter posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Natal, and transmitted by the post from any place in the United Kingdom to Natal, by British or Colonial packet-boat, the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of the same being posted.

2. If any letter shall be posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Natal, without any postage having been paid thereon, every such letter shall be forwarded, charged with the amount of the postage to which it would have been liable if the postage had been paid when posted, together with a further and additional rate of postage of sixpence.

3. If any letter shall be posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Natal, and the postage paid thereon shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such letter would be liable, under or by virtue of the regulations in force relating thereto, every such letter shall be forwarded, charged with the amount of the difference between the postage paid thereon, and the postage to which it would have been liable if the postage had been paid when posted, together with the further and additional rate of postage of sixpence.

4. Nothing hereinbefore contained shall, in anywise, prejudice or affect the privilege granted by the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, in favour of Petitions and Addresses forwarded to Her Majesty by the post, nor the privilege granted by the same Act, to Members of each House of Parliament, to receive by the post Petitions and Addresses to Her Majesty, and Petitions addressed to either House of Parliament, not exceeding thirty-two ounces in weight ; nor the privilege granted to printed Votes or Proceedings of Parliament ; nor shall anything in this Warrant contained in anywise prejudice or affect the privilege which seamen and soldiers, employed in Her Majesty's service, now by law enjoy of sending and receiving by the post letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight, subject to the regulations and restrictions in respect of the same.

5. The several terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

6. The Commissioners, for the time being, of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, duly made, at any time hereafter alter, repeal, or revoke any of the orders, directions, or regulations hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other orders, directions, or regulations in lieu thereof.

7. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of January, 1862.

SUPPLEMENT
LONDON GAZETTE of NOVEMBER 15, 1861.

CONVENTION between Her Majesty, the Queen of Spain, and the Emperor of the French, relative to Combined Operations against Mexico.

Signed at London, October 31, 1861.

[Ratifications exchanged at London,
November 15, 1861.]

Translation.

HER Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Her Majesty the Queen of Spain, and His Majesty the Emperor of the French, feeling themselves compelled by the arbitrary and vexatious conduct of the authorities of the Republic of Mexico to demand from those authorities more efficacious protection for the persons and properties of their subjects, as well as a fulfilment of the obligations contracted towards their Majesties by the Republic of Mexico, have agreed to conclude a Convention with a view to combine their common action, and, for this purpose, have named as their Plenipotentiaries, that is to say :—

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Right Honourable John Earl Russell, Viscount Amberley of

Amberley and Ardsalla, a Peer of the United Kingdom, a Member of Her Britannic Majesty's Privy Council, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs ;

Her Majesty the Queen of Spain, Don Xavier de Isturiz y Montero, Knight of the Illustrious Order of the Golden Fleece, Grand Cross of the Royal and Distinguished Order of Charles III, of the Imperial Order of the Legion of Honour of France, of the Orders of the Conception of Villaviciosa and Christ of Portugal, Senator of the Kingdom, late President of the Council of Ministers and First Secretary of State of Her Catholic Majesty, and Her Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to Her Britannic Majesty ;

And His Majesty the Emperor of the French, his Excellency the Count de Flahault de la Billarderie, Senator, General of Division, Grand Cross of the Legion of Honour, His Imperial Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary to Her Britannic Majesty:

Who, after having reciprocally communicated their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon the following Articles:—

ARTICLE I.

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Her Majesty the Queen of Spain, and His Majesty the Emperor of the French, engage to make, immediately after the signature of the present Convention, the necessary arrangements for dispatching to the coasts of Mexico, combined naval and military forces, the strength of which shall be determined by a further interchange of communications between their Governments, but of which the total shall be sufficient to seize and occupy the several fortresses and military positions on the Mexican coast.

The Commanders of the allied forces shall be, moreover, authorized to execute the other operations which may be considered, on the spot, most suitable to effect the object specified in the preamble of the present Convention, and specifically to ensure the security of foreign residents.

All the measures contemplated in this Article shall be taken in the name and on account of the High Contracting Parties, without reference to the particular nationality of the forces employed to execute them.

ARTICLE II.

The High Contracting Parties engage not to seek for themselves, in the employment of the coercive measures contemplated by the present Convention, any acquisition of territory nor any special advantage, and not to exercise in the internal affairs of Mexico any influence of a nature to prejudice the right of the Mexican nation to choose and to constitute freely the form of its Government.

ARTICLE III.

A Commission composed of three Commissioners, one to be named by each of the Contracting Powers, shall be established with full authority to determine all questions that may arise as to the application or distribution of the sums of money which may be recovered from Mexico, having regard to the respective rights of the three Contracting Parties.

ARTICLE IV.

The High Contracting Parties desiring, moreover, that the measures which they intend to adopt should not bear an exclusive character, and being aware that the Government of the United States, on its part, has, like them, claims to enforce upon the Mexican Republic, agree that immediately after the signature of the present Convention a copy thereof shall be communicated to the Government of the United States; that that Government shall be invited to accede to it; and that in anticipation of that accession their respective Ministers at Washington shall be at once furnished with full powers for the purpose of concluding and signing, collectively or separately, with the Plenipotentiary designated by the President of the United States, a Convention identic, save the suppression of the present Article, with that which they sign this day. But as by delaying to put into execution Articles I and II of the present Convention, the High Contracting Parties would incur a risk of failing in the object which they desire to attain, they have agreed not to defer, with the view of obtaining the accession of the Government of the United States, the commencement of the above-mentioned operations beyond the time at which their combined forces can be assembled in the neighbourhood of Vera Cruz.

ARTICLE V.

The present Convention shall be ratified, and the ratifications thereof shall be exchanged at London within fifteen days.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed it, and have affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

Done at London, in triplicate, the thirty-first day of the month of October, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
December 9, 1861.*

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, with reference to the notices inserted in the London Gazette of the 3rd of August, 1860, and the 10th of May, 1861, a copy of a Despatch from the British Member of the European Commission of the Danube, enclosing copies of certain provisional regulations which have been adopted by the Commission, with reference to the Police of the Port of Toultscha and the general inspection of the navigation of the Lower Danube, of which the following are translations :—

I.

Police of the Port of Toultscha.

ART. 1.—Every vessel passing in sight of Toultscha, or stopping in the port, is required to hoist her flag, and to comply with the orders of the Captain of the Port in all matters relating to the navigation regulations.

ART. 2.—Every vessel intending to make a stay at Toultscha, must be moored on the right bank; and under no circumstances may more than three vessels moor alongside of each other.

ART. 3.—No vessel will be permitted to cast anchor in the navigable channel before Toultscha, to the right of the moorings and the red buoys stationed along the left bank of the river.

ART. 4.—Vessels will be allowed to warp round the Toultscha bend by means of the buoys and mooring beams, but are prohibited, under any circumstances, from being made fast to them.

It is also forbidden for two or more vessels to warp at the same time, by means of the same buoy.

ART. 5.—Every infringement of the present regulations will be punished by a fine of from two to ten Dutch ducats.

ART. 6.—The Captain of the Port of Toultscha, and ultimately the Inspector-General of the navigation of that part of the Lower Danube below Isaktcha, are charged respectively, to enforce the execution of these regulations, which will come into operation immediately after their publication in the port of Toultscha.

II.

Provisional Regulations for establishing a General Inspection of the Navigation of that part of the Danube below Isaktcha.

The European Commission of the Danube, with the view of thoroughly enforcing the execution of the provisional regulations relative to police and navigation already adopted, and having reference to Article 16 of the Treaty of Paris, dated 30th March, 1856, further promulgates the subjoined provisional regulations.

ART. 1.—An Inspector-General, invested with international powers as representing the European Commission, shall be appointed to enforce on that part of the Danube below Isaktcha, a strict compliance with the regulations enumerated below :—

- (a) The provisional regulation relative to the police and navigation of the Lower Danube between Isaktcha and Sulina, dated 27th June, 1860.

- (b) The provisional regulation relative to the discharge of ballast, dated 29th April, 1858, but so far only as this regulation affects the river, exclusive of the port and roadstead of Sulina.
- (c) The provisional regulation relative to the pilotage of the Lower Danube, dated 9th July, 1860, but so far only as the pilotage on the river proper is concerned. (Section II of the Regulation).
- (d) The provisional regulation relative to the lighter service on the Lower Danube, dated 26th July, 1860, but so far only as lighter operations on the river are concerned, exclusive of the port and roadstead of Sulina.
- (e) The provisional regulation relating to the police of the port of Toultscha, dated 9th September, 1861.

ART. 2.—The Inspector-General will establish himself at Toultscha. He will have under his directions four superintendents, nominated by him, with the sanction of the authority which he represents, who will have assigned to them portions of the river in the following order, viz.:

1st Division.

From Isaktcha to Tchatal de St. Georges.

2nd Division.

From Tchatal de St. Georges to the lower mouth of the Papadia, in the Sulina Channel, inclusive.

3rd Division.

From the lower mouth of the Papadia, to the Guard House No. 14.

4th Division.

From the Guard House No. 14, to the limits of the port of Sulina, on the river side (Article I of the regulation respecting the police of the port, dated 9th July, 1860).

ART. 3.—The duties of the Inspector-General will consist :—

- (1). In superintending the execution of the regulations enumerated in Article I, in proving the infringement of the provisions contained in those regulations, and in enforcing the prescribed penalties against delinquents.
- (2). In preparing, after a personal inspection of the localities, in cases of stranding or shipwreck, a circumstantial procès-verbal as to the casualty, to be communicated to the competent authority. The Inspector-General will, moreover, provisionally possess the powers conferred on the Inspector of Technical Works, by Articles 37, 38, and 39 of the regulation relating to the river police, dated 27th June, 1860.

In cases of average, especially if arising out of collision, the Inspector-General, if able to state the facts, and if requested by one of the parties interested, will prepare a circumstantial procès-verbal, to be in like manner transmitted to the competent authority.

He will not be concerned with questions of a purely technical character relating to the improvement of the river ; though he will be at liberty to suggest to the Commission any improvements likely to facilitate the navigation of the river.

ART. 4.—The Superintendents will look exclusively for directions to the Inspector-General, and will be bound to report to him any facts of interest occurring in their respective limits, as laid down in the preceding Article.

ART. 5.—The Inspector-General will be subject exclusively to the European Commission, to whom he will transmit every month, independently of ordinary communications, a general and succinct report upon the working of the regulations.

ART. 6.—The Inspector-General will make every month at least two tours of inspection from Toultscha to Sulina, independently of the more frequent trips he may be compelled to take in the ordinary execution of his duties. One of the regular tours he will make in a boat.

The Superintendents will be required to traverse once daily, either by land or water, and alternately, half the divisions respectively allotted to them.

ART. 7.—The Inspector-General and his Assistants, will be expected to be acquainted with several of the languages in use on the Lower Danube.

ART. 8.—The Salary of the Inspector-General, will be 1,000 Dutch ducats per annum, without any allowance for office or travelling expences; it is, however, to be understood, that the European Commission will provide for the appointment and remuneration of a clerk, and will furnish the Inspector with a boat, fully equipped for his tours of inspection.

The salary of the four Superintendents, will be 300 Dutch ducats each, without any additional allowance. A boat will be provided for them, which they will be expected to keep in an efficient state.

The salaries of the Inspector-General and his clerk, as also those of the Superintendents, will be a charge paid out of the Navigation Chest at Sulina.

ART. 9.—The present regulations will not in any way affect the relations subsisting between the European Commission and the Captain of the port of Sulina.

ART. 10.—The Inspector-General will receive from the European Commission of the Danube, special instructions, determining more precisely the nature of his duties.

He will be furnished, as well as his superintendents, with a warrant from the Commission to establish their authority, and with a signal flag of several colours.

NOTICE TO MASTERS AND MATES IN THE MERCHANT SERVICE.

THE following Regulations have been established in pursuance of the Act 24 and 25 Vict., cap. 129, relating to the Enrolment of Officers in the Royal Naval Reserve :—

Any Master and Mate of the Merchant Service who is desirous of becoming an Officer of the Royal Naval Reserve, should apply by letter to the Registrar-General of Seamen, No. 6, Adelaide-place, London Bridge, E.C., for a form on which his application for a Commission in the Royal Naval Reserve is to be made, and should state distinctly in such letter, his name and the address to which the form is to be sent. A form of application will then be sent to the address indicated, with full instructions as to the mode in which it is to be filled up.

A pattern of the uniform may be seen at the office of the Registrar-General of Seamen.

ROYAL NAVAL RESERVE.

By the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c.

WHEREAS by the Act 24 and 25 Vict., cap. 129, provision is made to enable Her Majesty to avail herself of the services of a certain number of Officers of the Merchant Service of the United Kingdom, and of the Colonies and Dependencies of Great Britain, as Officers of Reserve to the Royal Navy; and whereas Her Majesty has been pleased, by Her Order in Council of the 20th instant, to direct that the following Regulations be established for carrying into effect the provisions of the said Act; we hereby desire and direct that the Regulations in question be promulgated for the information and guidance of Officers of the Merchant Service, who, in conformity with Her Majesty's gracious intentions, are desirous of enrolling themselves as Officers of the Royal Naval Reserve, under the conditions specified.

1. Number, Class, and Rank.

The Officers of the Royal Naval Reserve shall not exceed the total number of 400, and shall consist of two classes :—

1. Lieutenants of Naval Reserve, whose number shall not exceed 130; and who will rank with, but after, Lieutenants of the Royal Navy.

2. Sub-Lieutenants of Naval Reserve, whose number shall not exceed 270 ; and will rank with, but after, Sub-Lieutenants of the Royal Navy.

2. Appointment.

Officers of both classes will receive their appointments from us ; but applications for appointments should be made through the Board of Trade, London.

3. Qualification.

Masters of merchant-vessels who hold certificates of competency under the "Mercantile Marine Act of 1850," or the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," and who have commanded vessels of not less than 500 tons burthen, for not less than two years, shall be eligible for appointment as Lieutenants or Sub-Lieutenants of the Royal Naval Reserve.

Chief mates of merchant-vessels who hold masters' or chief mates' certificates of competency under the "Mercantile Marine Act, 1850," or the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and who have sailed as masters, or as chief mates, in vessels of not less than 500 tons burthen, for not less than two years, shall be eligible for the appointment of Sub-Lieutenant of the Royal Naval Reserve. Masters with extra certificates will, as a general rule, have the preference.

Qualification for the First Class will include qualification for the Second Class.

No Master or Mate will be enrolled as Lieutenant or Sub-Lieutenant whose age exceeds 45. This limit will subsequently be altered to 35, at the discretion of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

Masters of merchant-vessels who are actually afloat and in command, though they may be above the age of 45 years, may be enrolled as Honorary Lieutenants of the Royal Naval Reserve, on the recommendation of the Board of Trade.

The number of Honorary Lieutenants is not to exceed 100 in addition to the numbers above specified. They will not be required to undergo drill or be called out for service.

4. Promotion.

Officers of the Second Class will, if qualified, be eligible for promotion to the First Class, at our discretion.

Officers who, when in actual service, may, by the character or length of their service, obtain our special approbation, will be eligible to receive Commissions as Officers in the Royal Navy, of the same grade as that with which they may rank at the time. They will then be considered in all respects as Officers on the permanent strength of the Navy.

Officers who, whilst on actual service, shall have distinguished themselves in action with the enemy, or by the character and length of their services, will be eligible, at the conclusion of their service in the Navy, for promotion to the higher honorary ranks of Commander and Captain of the Naval Reserve, at our discretion.

5. Uniform.

Officers to wear the same uniform as Officers of corresponding rank in the Royal Navy, with the following exceptions, viz. :—

Lieutenants.—Instead of the stripe of half-inch lace round the sleeves of the coats there is to be a stripe formed of two waved lines of quarter-inch gold braid, intersecting each other, so as to form a band half an inch wide, the blue cloth to shew between the curves.

Sub-Lieutenants to have one such waved line of the same braid.

The buttons of both classes to be of the Royal Navy pattern, with the letters "R.N.R." in old English character, surmounted by a crown.

Instead of the anchor on the epaulettes and shoulder straps respectively, there is to be a badge consisting of a silver anchor in the centre, surrounded with the words "Royal Naval Reserve" embroidered in gold.

Instead of the bullion loop on the cocked hats, the loop to be formed of two gold braids twisted the same as for coat sleeves.

The badge for the caps to consist of a device similar to that on the epaulettes embroidered on blue cloth and surmounted by a crown.

The plate for the sword belt to be the same as for Officers of the Royal Navy, substituting the letters "R.N.R." for the anchor in the centre.

6. Drill.

Officers will be required to undergo in each year a course of 28 days' drill and gunnery instruction on board the district or drill ships at the ports in their respective vicinity, viz.:—London, Shields, Sunderland, Hull, Southampton, Falmouth, Bristol, Liverpool, Leith, Greenock, Dublin, or Queenstown.

7. Messing.

Officers, whilst on drill, will live on shore, and receive the following subsistence allowance, viz.:—

Lieutenants	10s. a day
Sub-Lieutenants	7s. a day.

When called out for service they will mess with their respective ranks.

8. Discipline.

Officers will be subject to Naval Discipline when attending drill, and when called out for actual service ; and will be liable to lose their Commissions for offences against the rules, discipline, or character of Her Majesty's Service, in the same manner as Officers of the Royal Navy.

9. Service Afloat.

Officers of the Royal Naval Reserve will be called out for actual service by Royal Proclamation ; and they will be liable to serve during the continuance of any national emergency, or until they may be regularly discharged by our direction.

10. Pay and Allowances, and Pensions to Widows.

Officers will, whilst called out for actual service, receive the pay of their corresponding ranks in the Royal Navy.

Officers who may receive hurts or wounds whilst on service, will receive the same pensions, and allowances, to which Officers in the Navy would be entitled under similar circumstances.

Widows of Officers who, whilst in actual service, may be killed in action, or die from accident resulting from the performance of their duty, will receive the same pensions as the widows of Naval Officers of corresponding rank would be entitled to under similar circumstances.

Given under our hands this 29th day of November, 1861.

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of DECEMBER 27, 1861.

Whitehall, December 27, 1861.

THE following Addresses and Resolutions of Condolence, on the occasion of the Death of His Royal Highness The Prince Consort, have been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Baronet, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, to be laid before the Queen.

Cubitt, Mayor.

An Especial Court of Mayor and Aldermen held in the inner chamber of the Guildhall of the city of London, on Saturday, the 21st day of December, 1861, and in the 25th year of the reign of Victoria, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, &c.

Resolved unanimously,

That the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the city of London desire to convey to Her Most Gracious Majesty the expression of their constant loyalty and heartfelt sympathy.

The mournful event through which Her Most Gracious Majesty has lost the devoted and loyal support of the Prince Consort, has, at the same time, deprived Her Majesty's subjects of a Prince who has for the last twenty years been foremost in the support of every measure which had for its object the advancement of the interests, the refinement of the taste, or the improvement of the moral and social condition of the people of his adopted country.

That Almighty God may grant to Her Most Gracious Majesty resignation under this heavy affliction, and that Her Majesty may be enabled to derive comfort from the recollection of the virtues of the late Prince, and from the sympathy of her whole people, is the earnest prayer of this Court.

Woodthorpe.

Cubitt, Mayor.

A Common Council holden in the Chamber of the Guildhall, of the city of London, on Monday, the 16th day of December, 1861.

Resolved unanimously,

That this Court has received with feelings of profound sorrow, the melancholy intelligence of the lamented decease of His Royal Highness Prince Albert, the Consort of Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen.

That this Court sincerely offers to Her Most Gracious Majesty, and to every member of the Royal Family, its deep sympathy and condolence upon the irreparable loss Her Majesty, Her illustrious family, and the nation at large have sustained.

That this Court, in recording its high admiration of the distinguished virtues of the late Prince Consort, of his constant solicitude for the protection of British interests, and his encouragement of education, art, and science, desires to express the deepest feeling of loyalty and affection for the person of Her Majesty, and the earnest prayer that, under Divine Providence, Her Majesty's life may long be spared and be blessed with tranquillity and resignation under Her Majesty's most afflicting bereavement.

Whitehall, December 30, 1861.

THE following Addresses and Resolutions of Condolence, on the occasion of the death of His Royal Highness The Prince Consort, have been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Baronet, Her Majesty's Principal

Secretary of State for the Home Department, to be laid before the Queen.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Society for the Encouragement of Arts, Manufactures, and Commerce, incorporated by royal charter, humbly approach your Majesty with the assurance of our devoted attachment to your throne and person, and of our respectful sympathy with your Majesty in the great affliction which has so unexpectedly befallen your Majesty and the nation in the early death of His Royal Highness the Prince Consort.

Whilst the death of a Prince, distinguished by rare intellectual gifts and eminent virtues, is deeply lamented by all classes of your Majesty's subjects, his loss is especially deplored by this Society, which has for many years enjoyed the great advantage of his judicious counsel and support.

His Royal Highness was elected President in 1843.

His high position, his refined tastes, his enlightened judgment, and his candour, his great command of general principles, and his power of applying them to details, and his special knowledge on a great variety of subjects, extended the influence, and greatly promoted the objects of the Society—Science, Art, and Literature, were by his judicious patronage constantly introduced to the notice and recommended to the favour of your Majesty.

The great conception of the Exhibition of 1851, with its countless influences on the progress of human industry, was due to His Royal Highness, 1861.

and in overcoming the difficulties of such a new and gigantic work, he solved the problem of conducting future Exhibitions, and their success will be an ever-recurring memorial of their Author.

The Society can never forget the obligations which His Royal Highness has conferred on them, and they humbly express a hope that the recollection of his virtues, and of his public services, may, with God's help, in some measure soften the intensity of your Majesty's affliction.

That your Majesty may long reign over a loyal and devoted people, is the prayer of your dutiful and loyal subjects and servants.

By order of the Council. Sealed with the seal of the Society for the Encouragement of Arts, Manufactures, and Commerce, this 27th day of December, 1861, in the presence of

P. Le Neve Foster, Secretary.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, cap. 96, for the regulation of the duties of postage, power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by Warrant, under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant.

And whereas, further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, cap. 85, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office.

And whereas, certain powers are also given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act passed in the 18th year of the reign of Her Majesty, cap. 27, for amending the laws relating to the stamp duties on newspapers, and for providing for the transmission by post of printed periodical publications.

And whereas, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by a certain Warrant in writing, under their hands, bearing date at Whitehall Treasury Chambers the 20th day of December, 1856, reciting (amongst other things) that a treaty had been then lately entered into between Her Majesty and the Emperor of the French, for regulating the communications by post between their respective dominions; and that it was expedient for the better carrying out of the same, that certain regulations should be made in the manner thereafter mentioned, did, in exercise of the powers reserved to them in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament, and every of them, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, order and direct that certain letters therein respectively mentioned, and also certain packets consisting of printed newspapers, and certain other packets consisting of printed papers, other than newspapers therein respectively mentioned, might be respectively transmitted by the post in conformity with, and under, and subject to, certain regulations, orders, directions, and conditions, and at certain rates of postage therein respectively mentioned, contained and specified. And the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury did further order and direct that it should be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, by warrant under their hands duly made at any time thereafter, to alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage thereby fixed or any of the orders, regulations, conditions, and restrictions thereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates, orders, regulations, conditions, and restrictions, in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates which might be payable were to be paid.

And whereas a further Treaty or Convention hath been lately entered into between Her Majesty and the Emperor of the French for further regulating certain communications by the post between their respective dominions, and it is expedient for the better carrying out of the same that certain further and other regulations should be made in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's

Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament, and every or any of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners, by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided, order and direct as follows, that is to say:—
